Subject: INVITATION: November 3-4, 2015 Annual NCTC Countering Violent Extremism Practitioner Workshop

Colleagues,

THIS IS OUR LAST CALL FOR RSVP FOR OUR CONFERENCE On NOVEMBER 3-4, 2015 NCTC will host its annual two day workshop on Countering Violent Extremism. The theme for this year's conference is "Approaches to Countering Violent Extremism: It Takes a Community." The Conference will take place at the MITRE Facility: 7525 Colshire Drive, McLean VA

Day one of the conference will address "Prevention and Intervention: Domestic & International Impacts and Strategies," and Day two will address "Looking Forward: Tech Sector, Women, and Rehabilitation Programs." The conference, which we are holding at the UNCLASSIFIED Level, will feature remarks from leaders in the CT community and interactive panels with some of the nation's leading practitioners, commentators, and scholars across the CVE community.

This conference will also provide an opportunity for CVE/community engagement practitioners to (1) network; (2) share information and best practices, and; (3) identify areas for collaboration on the CVE mission set.

Please find attached: List of local hotels, directions to the MITRE 1 Facility, MITRE Lobby information, directions to the Day 1 Happy Hour venue, and the conference agenda.
