Ok- Sorry. I didn't know that. In our Project call today we were trying to lay out our own schedule for April and this meeting seemed to get in the way with other tasks. [REDACTED] needs to go to Boston to work with the BRIC IT staff on the Legacy ETL process. [REDACTED] needs to work on the Management Console (admin page) to build the eGuardian UI push. [REDACTED] is finalizing the LEXS-SR service so that we can provide FBI a much larger set of SAR transactions.

We had a meeting today. I will keep you informed when the tech people need to be involved. We are still working on the plan first.

I understand that you will be facilitating a meeting between the BJA tech team and the eGuardian Team. If that meeting is next week, I need 2-3 days notice so that I can have the right people available and not impact my own schedule for Boston and Houston. Appreciate any guidance you can provide.

Thanks
