Thanks for your message Dan. Hope all is well with you also.

As to eGuardian, our Chief Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer, Nancy Libin, has been working with the FBI regarding the importance of compliance with the ISE policy. As you note, ensuring the protection of privacy often is critical to the participation in, and indeed the overall success of, information sharing plans and programs.

Thanks again!
Kirsten

Hi Kirsten - hope you are well.

Just fyi that I've been speaking with the PM-ISE folks (on a number of items), and they mentioned you all are helping promote adoption by the FBI's eGuardian program of the ISE privacy policy.
