

Federal Bureau of Investigation
American Islamic Extremists

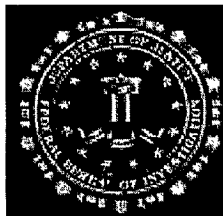

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 12-08-2011 BY 65179 DMH/SBS

- Derivatives of the Dar Ul Islamic Movement, a domestic African-American Sunni Islamic fundamentalist movement.
 - Ummah Movement
- Espouses mixed Islamic theology with some levels of black separatism, anarchism, and racial rhetoric.
- Consider the U.S. to be anti-Islam/anti-minority rights.

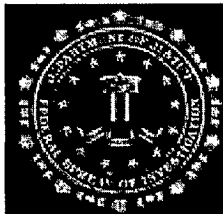

- Homegrown extremists who have motivation to commit criminal acts in furtherance of a radical Islamic agenda.
- U.S. persons, may include converts to the Islamic faith with an extremist view.
- These individuals do not take direction from or are affiliated with a foreign power or terrorist organization.

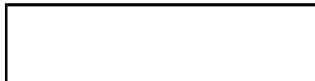

Black Separatist Extremist

VS

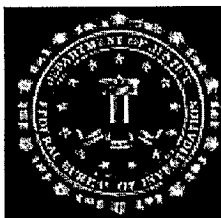

American Islamic Extremist

- There are currently

b7E

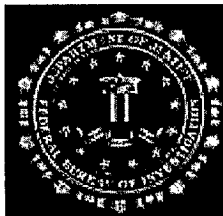

- As of April 2010, there were [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

b7E

- As of April 2011, there are currently [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Sub-Program Manager

IA [redacted]

Office - [redacted]

Blackberry - [redacted]

[redacted]@ic.fbi.gov

SSA [redacted]

[redacted]

Questions??

Serial Description ~ Unrecorded Serial

[illegible][illegible]