I think this is the first version we saw. I'm also going to send you the second in a minute when I find it

I've added my comments into your document and highlighted them. (b)(5)

Brian,

See attached. I'm not sure if CE also has further comment on this presentation.

Recommend sending these combined edits, along with the presentation, up for Friday's leadership meeting. For Kathy's awareness, this is the second version that CRCL has commented on and our previous edits were ignored entirely. (b)(5)

Hey (b)(6)

So I made a Word doc from the email from OTVTP. Turned on tracking and inserted previous comments (that made sense to include) and add new ones where it seemed to make sense. I also added a couple screen captures where I thought it was particularly egregious.

See if I missed anything you wanted to point out.
