Rob – I spoke to Jeff earlier yesterday and suggested that shooting you a quick note would be the best way to get this conversation started. He can probably fill you in a bit more as well.

As you may or may not know, I have been working on CVE for the past 3 years on domestic and now international side of things, and have been working closely with NSC as George Selim’s counterpart here at DHS for some time; I also have managed the DHS CVE Working Group. I know the interagency partners well and will be preparing materials S2 for the upcoming deputies breakfast. I also just revamped the 5/8 Belgian Dinner memo for S2 this AM (it should be on its way from I&A).

Long story short, I am sure that you are aware of potential changes on the horizon that may impact both CVE and the foreign fighter issue. I am fully aware that S2 is highly engaged in these discussions. I want to ensure that what has been built over the years under this administration continues and that your office/S2 has full awareness at what is at his disposal.

I know you may be preparing to depart for Brussels, but if you have time when you return it would be great to discuss further.

I’d appreciate it if you could keep this close hold.

Thanks,
-Nate

Subject: Invitation to a reception after the White House event on CVE, January 18

All, Europol, the European Law Enforcement Agency, with support from the Royal Netherlands Embassy in Washington D.C. would like to invite you to a reception immediately following the January 18 White House event on countering violent extremism (CVE).

The aim of the reception is to give you a possibility to meet a number of law enforcement and intelligence officers from Europol and European countries and to give you a possibility to further discuss experiences on CVE.

The reception will take place at the University Club, 1135, 16 street NW (4 blocks from the White House) on January 18, 3.30-5.30 PM.

Dress code: business attire.

RSVP to Tor Burman, Europol Liaison Officer,

(b)(6) latest on January 18 at noon.

Best regards,

Subject:	Europol/EU partner VTC: Oslo Response Taskforce MONDAY 11AM
Date:	2012/01/20 12:44:02
Type:	Note.EnterpriseVault.Shortcut

CVEWG - as a follow up to the Europol/EU partner delegation visit this week our Europol and EU partners are hosting a VTC on what is being done in response to incidents like the Brevik case in Oslo. They are forming a taskforce to look at response, prevention, intervention, and information sharing to deal with similar incidents.

The VTC will include Europol and local EU partners to brief DHS and interagency partners on this effort.

This will be the start of a series of discussions that will take place over the next few months.

The VTC will be MONDAY (Jan 23) from 11AM-12PM. We are working on locking down the exact location (it will be at the NAC)

Space may be limited so we will need an RSVP to keep count.

Apologies for the short notice.

Please RSVP to nathaniel.snyder@dhs.gov or caroline.simmons@dhs.gov.

Thanks,

-Nate
