KENOSHA POLICE
FIELD CASE REPORT

CASE# 2020-00047098

NARRATIVE

On 08-25-2020 I, PO Ciskowski 562 along with PO Peterson 342, in full Kenosha PD uniform and in marked squad car 3382, was assigned to routine patrol in the City of Kenosha. At approximately 1010hrs I was dispatched to check on a suspicious vehicle behind 2108-63rd Street.

I located the suspicious vehicle, a blue Chevrolet pick up truck. The license plates, front and back, had bandanas covering the license plates. I observed IL reg. 2945703B. There was a blue tarp stretched over the back of the pick up truck. Completing a welfare check, I lifted a corner of the tarp and observed home made shields, home made vests, batons made from boat paddles, fireworks and water.

We were able to make contact with the apparent owner of the property. he advised his dad was the owner and assumes at this point it is in his name. He advised that he had not given permission for the truck to be there and requested it be removed. Jantz towing responded and removed the vehicle, taking it back to the their lot.

No further involvement taken on this call.
