In case you haven't seen the latest media push..

I understand it's all fluid and most out of our control, but if we could at least get an extra body for the door guard and/or baggage control it would show a real sense of support. I'm hearing a fair amount of concerns about an influx of people coming back thru the exit doors.

Just a thought...

Lawyers are advising green card holders to fly into Boston

By Lisa Wangsness GLOBE STAFF JANUARY 29, 2017

Some immigration lawyers are advising green card holders from seven majority-Muslim countries affected by President Trump's order and who are traveling overseas to fly back to the United States through Boston because a Massachusetts judge's order blocking the enforcement of President Trump's executive order offers them more protection than similar judicial orders elsewhere.

The order signed by Judge Allison Burroughs and Magistrate Judge Judith Dein, issued early Sunday morning, requires the government to release approved refugees and individuals with valid visas from the seven majority-Muslim countries listed in President Trump's executive order — Iraq, Syria, Sudan, Libya, Somalia, and Yemen.

A similar order from a New York judge blocks immigration officials from deporting those individuals upon their arrival, but it allows the government to detain them pending further legal review.

Becca Heller, director and co-founder of the International Refugee Assistance Project, said green card holders from the seven countries have been detained at John F. Kennedy International Airport and Los Angeles International Airport, as well as other airports around the country.

She said that her team is trying to plan “a massive outreach campaign” to alert green card holders to change their plans and fly through Boston.

“We continue to face Border Patrol noncompliance and chaos at every airport across the country and the world, despite the fact we had a great victory last night,” she told reporters on the same conference call on Sunday.

The Burroughs restraining order is in effect for seven days; the court will schedule a hearing prior to its expiration.

Quick update on the media front.

The Boston Globe was provided the approved DHS statement, and they also asked (as a follow up) if I agreed with the court order, which I promptly declined to offer any opinions.

Will keep you posted of any pertinent activity.

Situational awareness:

Most of the demonstrators are holding signs just welcoming people, there is a small number handing out flyers accusing Trump and Pence of being fascist and saying they must be defeated.

Massport is going to keep close eye on them to ensure that group does not grow.

Per DFO call and our PD call:

MUSTER VERBALLY TO ALL MANAGERS AND CBP OFFICERS

- Aliens presenting the following 7 passports are INADMISSIBLE to the United States, including LPRs: (Except "A" and "G" visas)
 - Iran
 - Iraq
 - Syria
 - Sudan
 - Somalia
 - Libya
 - Yemen
- All nationals above (except A and G NIVs) will be subject to (b)(7)(E) fully documented, and allowed to WD in lieu of ER, unless an ER is appropriate.
- Fear claims will be processed as normal.
- Waivers for LPRs under 212(F) may be approved by the DFO ONLY, assuming they are otherwise admissible.
- Dual nationals presenting a Passport of another country (e.g. as a VWP applicant), including NIV if not a VWP country, may be processed under that presented national identity. This does not preclude thorough vetting as appropriate.
- All inquiries shall be deferred to:

OPA (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) office, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) (cell), (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

BFO (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Office: (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Mobile: (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)
- REPORTING on any cases will be due to BSC: (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) by 0500 hours.
- Track all OT expenses directly related to these actions.

- With all the changes that the latest executive order brings, a potential outcome that we must be prepared to deal with is community/traveler backlash. Talk to your troops and reinforce the need to be professional when dealing with potential situations and most importantly stay vigilant both on and off duty.

The meeting was extremely well. Very well attended. (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) opened the meeting by thanking the State Police and CBP for the handling of the weekend's activities. (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) specifically thanked APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) for his early and often communication. I was asked by (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to say a few words.

My comments

- Thanked Massport and MSP for support that ensured our daily mission was achieved
- Indicated that correspondence had been sent last night to the Carriers. Anyone who needed a copy or would like to provide email address for future correspondence to see me after the meeting. (no one approached me)
- Expressed that CBP will continue to process aliens according to the law

Massports concerns

- Actively monitoring social media
- Monitoring passenger diversion into Boston based on social media comments

TacOps sent similar messages out and Logan is set to do it any minute now. This has to cascade down all the way to every officer. Even the single message that the DFO sent to ALL employees is covered in this order. So all employees are on that mailing list have received at least one message regarding the EO. So I can't think of anyone that is not effected by the order. The trade staff gets these frequently with court cases and the integrity of entry documentation. It's the same type of order for those. (VW cars that didn't meet EPA standards for ex.)

And APD: (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) informed us that he sent you a head's up yesterday prior to any of us sending out messages. If this is incorrect, give me a call and we can discuss.

I received some concerns from the bargaining unit about signing acknowledge for this. We received this yesterday and none of the employees here had to respond in writing about reading and acknowledging the guidance. Why is the Trade staff different? Further since the staff really shouldn't have access to any of the associated materials such as noted in the memo, I don't know why this would be a priority for the staff. Any information and details would be appreciated, especially since no notification was made to me in advance.

As protests roiled, professors who were detained at Logan airport waited

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was welcomed after being detained at Boston's Logan airport. He and his wife, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) (b)(6), (b)(7)(C), are professors at UMass Dartmouth and are green card holders.

By (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Globe Staff January 29, 2017

Confined to a holding room at Logan International Airport Saturday afternoon, two UMass Dartmouth professors had no idea that their detention had become the basis for a legal challenge to key portions of President Trump's immigration order.

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) a married couple, had been on their way back from a weeklong sustainable engineering conference in Marseille, France, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) said in an interview Sunday morning. The first inkling that something had changed came when an official at Charles De Gaulle

Airport in Paris cautioned them that new rules, enacted in the past 24 hours, could cause the couple some problems on their journey home.

“He checked a few things and said, ‘because you gave green cards you should be OK,’ ” said (b)(6), (b)(7)(C). So the couple, Iranian immigrants who have lived in the United States as permanent residents for more than a decade, boarded the flight home at about 4 p.m. Paris time.

The trip was routine. The couple watched movies, and the flight landed early.

“I never felt that we were going to be banned from entering the country,” (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) said, though he said that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was “a little stressed out.”

Only after they'd gone through the standard process for re-entry did things change. The couple and about a dozen others were pulled aside and informed that they were now subject to a “secondary process,” said (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) 40.

And so they waited. There were occasional routine questions, he said, about the trip and their jobs (both are engineering professors with doctoral degrees from Johns Hopkins University). The officials who questioned them were pleasant, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) said, and checked in every half-hour or so to see if they needed water or a trip to the restroom.

“They were very, very professional and unexpectedly kind and nice,” (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) said.

Unbeknownst to the people waiting, who (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) said were barred from using cell phones, the scene in the airport outside was growing chaotic.

Lawyers for the American Civil Liberties Union Massachusetts found (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) sister, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) said, and got their names. Their detention, which lasted about four hours, became the basis for a judge's overnight ruling that prohibits people lawfully entitled to enter the country from being detained or removed.

When (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) finally emerged — they were nearly the last to be cleared — they walked into a roiling protest.

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) said he wasn't sure what would happen next — whether they would continue to be involved beyond the seven-day temporary restraining order that was issued overnight, and in what capacity.

Good Morning,

The below guidance is being provided again to ensure that all carriers are aware of the District Court's order in Louhghalam v. Trump, No. 17-cv-10154 (issued on January 29, 2017). That order is attached.

Airlines are informed that CBP will process all individuals arriving at T.F. Green Airport in accordance with the law. Upon arrival at T.F. Green Airport all individuals will be processed in accordance with the law, including to determine if they are inadmissible. Those individuals who are inadmissible will be placed in appropriate removal proceedings and detained only where it is permissible under the law. See INA 235(b)(1). Carriers are reminded that it is unlawful to bring into the United States any alien who does not have a valid passport and an unexpired visa, if a visa was required under the Act or regulations issued thereunder.

Travelers will be processed based on the documents they present during inspection, e.g. if it is a Lebanese passport and visa issued to that passport, then that is how they are presenting themselves for inspection.

A USC (or Canadian) born in France or Syria is still a USC (or Canadian) if they present themselves as such.

I spoke to Chief (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from the Wilmington, MA Police Department today regarding handling CBP's Overnight detentions. Since the Executive Order titled "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States" was signed the ACLU has been in his lobby asking to represent any CBP detention.

He stated that he will not be accepting any CBP's overnights due to the recent political climate surrounding immigration.

Lufthansa To Abide By Anti-Ban Court Order—Travelers Targeted by Trump Can Now Fly (to Boston)

By Steve Vladeck

Thursday, February 2, 2017 at 9:27 PM

In what may well be a sign of things to come, Lufthansa has posted a notice to its website that, pursuant to the rulings of the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts, anyone with valid travel documents may board international Lufthansa flights bound for Boston—whether or not their entry into the United States is prohibited by President Trump’s Executive Order on immigration. In essence, Lufthansa has chosen to very publicly side with the district court’s order over the Executive Order, at least with respect to Boston-bound flights.

All,

Be advised, the information below has been posted to the Lufthansa website. I do not know how long this has been on the website or where they got this information from. What I do know is that two pax were offloaded on LH 422 yesterday and as of now I see only one passenger with a reservation to travel between now and 2/5 from the 7 countries that should be scheduled for offload. If this was just posted we may see some last minute bookings or rebookings into Boston so let's pay close attention to LH. Let me know if you have any questions.

New immigration restrictions for travel to the USA

The United States Government has introduced a travel ban to the USA with immediate effect. Admission will be refused to visitors with a passport issued by 7 countries - Iran, Iraq, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria and Yemen - and holding a valid immigrant or non-immigrant visa for the US.

- This travel ban does not apply to:
- Lawful Permanent Residents (Green Card holders) of the USA who also hold a passport issued by one of the 7 aforementioned countries
 - Dual Nationals, holding and traveling with a valid passport issued by USA as well as a passport issued by one of the 7 aforementioned countries
 - Dual Nationals holding and traveling with a valid passport issued by a third country as well as a passport issued by one of the 7 aforementioned countries
 - Passengers with diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations and G-1 ,G-2 ,G-3 ,and G-4 visas

Due to a decision (Temporary Restraint Order) by the District Court in Massachusetts, the above mentioned Order is suspended on flights to BOS for the time being until February 5th, 2017. All passengers with valid travel documents are eligible to board on LH-flights to BOS.

Affected passengers can request one free-of-charge rebooking or refund via the Lufthansa Service Center at +49 (0) 69-86-799-799 or one of our local Lufthansa phone numbers.

For further information please refer to the website of the US Authorities.

All,

Some of the ports experienced a high volume of calls earlier in the week all asking the same two questions. It is our understanding that this was an organized social media driven protest of the Executive Order "Protecting the Nation from Terrorist attacks by Foreign Nationals". It is believed that over the coming weekend that this campaign will commence. In the event that this continues please see the updated talking points that you should share with your teams. Thank you all again for the way you handled this week's call campaign. Well done!

Q: Are you currently detaining any travelers?

A: CBP is not currently holding any individuals based on the Executive Order, however, at any given time there may be a number of people going through inspection who fall within the scope of the Executive Order. All individuals who arrive in the United States are subject to inspection and may be selected for a secondary examination.

CBP is unable to provide local statistics and due to privacy laws we are unable to share any information about specific individuals, however, you may:

- Check CBP.gov for the most up to date information and national statistics
- Call the CBP Info Center at (b)(7)(E) or
- Contact help.cbp.gov for any other questions

Q: Do you have anyone in custody who does not have access to a lawyer?

A: CBP is unable to discuss matters pending litigation. CBP is not currently holding any individuals based on the Executive Order, however, upon arrival at a U.S. port of entry, all individuals are subject to inspection and determination of admissibility to the U.S.
