Executive Order (EO) Protecting the Nation From Terrorist Attacks by Foreign Nationals
Frequently Asked Questions
9/26/2017 7:43:46 PM

1. How many persons impacted by the EO are currently detained at each Port of Entry (POE)?
 - a. All individuals who arrive in the United States are subject to inspection. This inspection may require additional time. There are many reasons why an inspection may take more time. However, at this moment, there are no individuals held in custody on the basis of the Executive Order.
2. What is happening to those currently in detention? Will they be released?
 - a. CBP is not currently holding in its custody any individual based on the Executive Order. However, at any given time there may be a number of people going through inspection who fall within the scope of the Executive Order.
3. How many no-board recommendations have been issued? How many individuals were denied entry to the United States due to the Executive Order? Please break this number out by refugees, LPRs, Students, and other NIVs.
 - a. There are a number of reasons that we may make a recommendation to a carrier that they not board an individual, including because their visa is no longer valid. Below are the actions taken in accordance with the Executive Order signed January 27, 2017. Statistics are valid as of 1500 hrs, January 30, 2017

CBP Executive Order Actions
Recommended Denial of Boarding	721
Legal Permanent Resident (LPR) waivers	1,059
Visa holders granted waivers	75

4. Please explain the process for considering an individual for an exemption under the EO.
 - a. Senior DHS personnel can review individual cases and grant exemptions on a case-by-case basis if that individual's admission to the U.S. falls within the parameters of the Executive Order. CBP is processing exemptions consistent with the Secretary's guidance.
5. Are all Lawful Permanent Residents (LPRs) eligible for an exemption – returning and first time arrivals?
 - a. It is important to understand that individuals with immigrant visas overseas are not LPRs. Eligible individuals only become Lawful Permanent Residents once they have been inspected and admitted at a port of entry.
 - b. Lawful Permanent Residents of the United States traveling on a valid I-551 will be allowed to board U.S. bound aircraft and will be assessed on a case-by-case basis for exceptions upon arrival at ports of entry, as appropriate. CBP is processing exemptions consistent with the Secretary's guidance.

- 6. Did CBP deport any individuals following the stay granted in NY and prior to the issuance of guidance to the field?
 - a. This is the subject of ongoing litigation. Please refer these questions to DOJ.
- 7. Did CBP have an implementation plan prior to the EO being released?
 - a. The Executive Order and the instructions therein were effective at the time of the order's signing. Guidance was provided to DHS field personnel shortly thereafter.
- 8. Has CBP issued clear guidance to the Field on the EO and the court orders?
 - a. Yes, CBP issued guidance to the field expeditiously upon the signing of the Executive Order. CBP has and will continue to issue any needed guidance to the field with respect to court orders. All individuals, including those affected by the court orders, are being given all rights afforded under the law.
- 9. What coordination is being done between CBP and the carriers?
 - a. CBP has been and will remain in constant communication with the airlines through CBP regional carrier liaisons. In addition, CBP has held multiple executive level calls with the airlines in order to provide guidance, answer questions, and address concerns.
- 10. When did enforcement of the EO start?
 - a. The Executive Order became effective on January 27, 2017.
- 11. The EO lists specific visa category exemptions, such as diplomatic visas. Are there any visa category exemptions not listed?
 - a. Visa categories that are exempt are listed in the Executive Order.
- 12. Has CBP been pressuring detainees to either withdraw their applications for admission into the country or sign documents rescinding their green cards? There are reports that CBP is confiscating green cards.
 - a. CBP is committed to following the law. Any withdrawal of an application for admission must be voluntary. The withdrawal process is not new and our officers are well trained to ensure that individuals make voluntary decisions.
- 13. Is there a process for LPRs/Refugees/Returning Students who might be eligible for an exemption to qualify/apply for that exemption overseas? Is it true that only individuals who are able to reach a POE are given the chance for an exemption?
 - a. It is important to note that the Secretary of State has equivalent authority to grant waivers. We recommend questions about overseas implementation be directed to the Secretary of State.

Frequently Asked Questions
9/26/2017 7:43:46 PM

- 14. Is CBP searching social media profiles of those affected by the Executive Order
- a. CBP has processes and procedures in place with respect to appropriate searches of individuals when they arrive at ports of entry. You may find the privacy impact assessment, for instance, with respect to social media for ESTA applicants here: <https://www.dhs.gov/sites/default/files/publications/privacy-pia-cbp-esta-september2016.pdf>. Public guidance regarding the search of electronics can be found on the CBP website.
- 15. Have any individuals impacted by the Executive Order been transferred to ICE custody?
- a. Individuals affected by the Executive Order, even if they are provided an exemption, may still be inadmissible. Individuals who are inadmissible, for instance for criminal grounds, are still being processed in a manner that is consistent with the court orders.
- 16. Does this Executive Order apply to dual nationals of the seven countries who want to enter the U.S.? If they apply for entry based on their citizenship from one of the countries NOT on the list, will they be allowed entry?
- a. Travelers are being processed and when eligible admitted according to the travel document they present.

Additional Questions

- 17. Can a dual national traveling with a passport from an unrestricted country travel to the U.S.?
- a. Dual nationals with a valid immigrant or nonimmigrant visa in a passport issued by any country not restricted under the Executive Order will be permitted to apply for admission to the United States.
- 18. Can a dual national who holds nationality with a restricted country and is currently overseas, apply for an immigrant or nonimmigrant visa to the United States?
- a. Posts are allowed to process visa applications and issue nonimmigrant and immigrant visas to otherwise eligible visa applicants who apply with a passport from an unrestricted country, even if they hold dual nationality from a restricted country. Please contact the Department of State with any questions related to the issuance of visas.
- 19. Will Canadian immigrants affected by the Executive Order be eligible for entry to the United States?
- a. Landed immigrants of Canada (not including refugees) who hold passports of a restricted country can apply for admission to the United States, if the individual presents that passport with a valid immigrant or nonimmigrant visa, proof of their landed immigrant status, and only if the travel both originates in Canada and is through a land border or a preclearance location.

- 20. Can Canadian immigrants affected by the Executive Order apply for an immigrant or nonimmigrant visa to the United States?
- a. Landed immigrants of Canada (not including refugees) who hold passports of a restricted country can apply for an immigrant or nonimmigrant visa to the United States, if the individual presents that passport, and proof of landed immigrant status, to a consular officer. These applications shall be made at a U.S. consular section in Canada.
- 21. Will Iraqi Passport holders with a valid Special Immigrant Visa be eligible for entry to the United States?
- a. The entry of Iraqi nationals with a valid Special Immigrant Visa to the United States is deemed to be in the national interest and can apply for admission to the United States. Accordingly, absent the receipt of significant derogatory information indicating a serious threat to public safety and welfare, possession of a Special Immigrant Visa will be a dispositive factor in case-by-case determinations. - 25. Does CBP have the authority to search individuals' electronics?
- a. All international travelers arriving to the U.S. are subject to CBP inspection. This inspection may include electronic devices such as computers, disks, drives, tapes, mobile phones and other communication devices, cameras, music and other media players and any other electronic or digital devices.

Various laws that CBP is charged to enforce authorize searches and detention in accordance with 8 U.S.C. § 1357 and 19 U.S.C. §§ 1499, 1581, 1582. All persons, baggage, and merchandise arriving in, or departing from, the United States are subject to inspection, search and detention. This is because CBP officers must determine the identity and citizenship of all persons seeking entry into the United States, determine the admissibility of foreign nationals, and deter the entry of possible terrorists, terrorist weapons, controlled substances, and a wide variety of other prohibited and restricted items.

Keeping America safe and enforcing our nation's laws in an increasingly digital world depends on our ability to lawfully examine all materials entering the U.S.

ATTORNEY CLIENT PRIVILEGED

All,

Attached please find the guidance which we have just received from the White House counsel, Donald F. McGahn.

It states in pertinent part (key portion highlighted):

Section 3(c) of the Executive Order entitled “Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States” (Jan. 27, 2017) suspends for 90 days the entry into the United States of certain aliens from countries referred to in section 217(a)(12) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1187(a)(12). Section 3(e) of the order directs the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, to submit to the President a list of countries recommended for inclusion on a Presidential proclamation that would prohibit the entry of certain foreign nationals from countries that do not provide information needed to adjudicate visas, admissions, or other benefits under the INA.

I understand that there has been reasonable uncertainty about whether those provisions apply to lawful permanent residents of the United States. Accordingly, to remove any confusion, I now clarify that Sections 3(c) and 3(e) do not apply to such individuals. Please immediately convey this interpretive guidance to all individuals responsible for the administration and implementation of the Executive Order.

Accordingly,

Rob,

I have discussed with the watch commanders and we would like to propose that (b)(5), (b)(7)(E) send the 0400 report (b)(7)(E) between 2200 and 2300 hours.

I do not believe MSP has arrivals after that time, and in the event there is an unanticipated arrival on one of our overnight flights at ORD, our morning watch commander will come in early to submit a revised report.

If this is acceptable we will assume reporting responsibility effective 1300 hours tomorrow (1/31).

FROM: (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)
Deputy Executive Director, Operations (Acting)
Office of Field Operations

SUBJECT: Reporting Guidance for Actions Taken Related to Executive Order: Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry Into the United States

On January 27, 2017, President Donald Trump issued Executive Order: Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States. It is the policy of the United States to protect its citizens from foreign nationals who intend to commit terrorist attacks in the United States; and to prevent the admission of foreign nationals who intend to exploit United States immigration laws for malevolent purposes.

As we push forward in our efforts to protect our Nation, OFO Operations will require daily reporting on our activities as related to this Executive Order. Reporting will include encounters in the air, land and sea environments with anyone who arrives into the U.S. from the seven (7) countries (Iran, Iraq, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria and Yemen) that meets the criteria outlined in the Executive Order and the instructions issued to the field by Admissibility and Passenger Programs.

Using the attached spreadsheet, data should be captured daily for the 24-hour time period beginning at 0300 (EST) – and ending at 0259 hours (EST). By 0500 hours (EST) daily, each Field Office is required to submit their data from the previous 24-hours to OFO Field Liaison [REDACTED] (b)(7)(E) Reports must be submitting using the attached Microsoft Excel template document. Field Liaison will consolidate these reports into a final report senior CBP and DHS leadership.

If you have any questions regarding to reporting, please contact the Field Liaison Division, at [REDACTED] (b)(7)(E) [REDACTED] (b)(7)(E) For questions pertaining to the implementation of the new policy, please contact Ryan Hutton, Deputy Executive Director, Admissibility and Passenger Programs at [REDACTED] (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

SUBJECT: (SBU) Determination to exempt certain refugees from the President's Executive Order so they may enter the United States

Background

(SBU) The Executive Order "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States" (EO) suspends certain aspects of the US Refugee Admissions Program for 120 days, including the entry of refugees. Section 5(e) of the EO provides that "the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such refugees is in the national interest – including ... when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship – and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States."

(SBU) PRM is seeking for you and DHS to determine jointly to admit 872 refugees who are already in transit through February 2. This group does not include nationals from the specific countries restricted in the Executive Order (Iran, Iraq, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, and Yemen). A list of these individuals is attached at Tab 1. Many of these individuals have already been moved from camps or other remote locations to U.S.-run refugee processing hubs in preparation for departure. Most have sold or relinquished their accommodations, household effects and other belongings; given up employment; and or discontinued schooling for their children. Many have had their residency permits rescinded by their countries of asylum once granted exit permits to imminently depart to the United States and others have been preparing for life in the United States to join U.S. family members who are already here. These individuals are mostly families with children and immediate cancellation of their travel would impose extreme hardship on people who have fled persecution and conflict in order to be resettled in the U.S. Without this humanitarian measure, some refugees could be stuck in limbo or even risk being returned to a country where they would face persecution. As such, each individual in this group is in transit and denying them admission would cause undue hardship.

(SBU) You must also determine jointly with the Secretary of Homeland Security that the admission of each of these individuals would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States. Refugees under this exemption request have cleared security vetting. All of the information (including biographic and biometric) collected on applicants has been screened (b)(7)(E)

(b)(7)(E) Where appropriate, certain aspects of screening were automated, but human intelligence analysts were engaged throughout.

(b)(7)(E)

(SBU) This exemption must be jointly determined by the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security. We have coordinated with the Department of Homeland Security and understand that its Secretary is prepared to make this determination for these individuals jointly with you. Because of the nature of travel bookings, this waiver must be issued today or tomorrow to allow such travel.

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

January 27, 2017

EXECUTIVE ORDER

- - - - -

PROTECTING THE NATION FROM FOREIGN TERRORIST
ENTRY INTO THE UNITED STATES

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq., and section 301 of title 3, United States Code, and to protect the American people from terrorist attacks by foreign nationals admitted to the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. The visa-issuance process plays a crucial role in detecting individuals with terrorist ties and stopping them from entering the United States. Perhaps in no instance was that more apparent than the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, when State Department policy prevented consular officers from properly scrutinizing the visa applications of several of the 19 foreign nationals who went on to murder nearly 3,000 Americans. And while the visa-issuance process was reviewed and amended after the September 11 attacks to better detect would-be terrorists from receiving visas, these measures did not stop attacks by foreign nationals who were admitted to the United States.

Numerous foreign-born individuals have been convicted or implicated in terrorism-related crimes since September 11, 2001, including foreign nationals who entered the United States after receiving visitor, student, or employment visas, or who entered through the United States refugee resettlement program. Deteriorating conditions in certain countries due to war, strife, disaster, and civil unrest increase the likelihood that terrorists will use any means possible to enter the United States. The United States must be vigilant during the visa-issuance process to ensure that those approved for admission do not intend to harm Americans and that they have no ties to terrorism.

In order to protect Americans, the United States must ensure that those admitted to this country do not bear hostile attitudes toward it and its founding principles. The United States cannot, and should not, admit those who do not support the Constitution, or those who would place violent ideologies over American law. In addition, the United States should not admit those who engage in acts of bigotry or hatred (including "honor" killings, other forms of violence against women, or the persecution of those who practice religions different from their own) or those who would oppress Americans of any race, gender, or sexual orientation.

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the United States to protect its citizens from foreign nationals who intend to commit terrorist attacks in the United States; and to prevent the admission of foreign nationals who intend to exploit United States immigration laws for malevolent purposes.

Sec. 3. Suspension of Issuance of Visas and Other Immigration Benefits to Nationals of Countries of Particular Concern. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall immediately conduct a review to determine the information needed from any country to adjudicate any visa, admission, or other benefit under the INA (adjudications) in order to determine that the individual seeking the benefit is who the individual claims to be and is not a security or public-safety threat.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall submit to the President a report on the results of the review described in subsection (a) of this section, including the Secretary of Homeland Security's determination of the information needed for adjudications and a list of countries that do not provide adequate information, within 30 days of the date of this order. The Secretary of Homeland Security shall provide a copy of the report to the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence.

(c) To temporarily reduce investigative burdens on relevant agencies during the review period described in subsection (a) of this section, to ensure the proper review and maximum utilization of available resources for the screening of foreign nationals, and to ensure that adequate standards are established to prevent infiltration by foreign terrorists or criminals, pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the immigrant and nonimmigrant entry into the United States of aliens from countries referred to in section 217(a)(12) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1187(a)(12), would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and I hereby suspend entry into the United States, as immigrants and nonimmigrants, of such persons for 90 days from the date of this order (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas).

(d) Immediately upon receipt of the report described in subsection (b) of this section regarding the information needed for adjudications, the Secretary of State shall request all foreign governments that do not supply such information to start providing such information regarding their nationals within 60 days of notification.

(e) After the 60-day period described in subsection (d) of this section expires, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall submit to the President a list of countries recommended for inclusion on a Presidential proclamation that would prohibit the entry of foreign nationals (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas) from countries that do not provide the information requested pursuant to subsection (d) of this section until compliance occurs.

(f) At any point after submitting the list described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretary of State or the Secretary of Homeland Security may submit to the President the names of any additional countries recommended for similar treatment.

(g) Notwithstanding a suspension pursuant to subsection (c) of this section or pursuant to a Presidential proclamation described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may, on a case-by-case basis, and when in the national interest, issue visas or other immigration benefits to nationals of countries for which visas and benefits are otherwise blocked.

(h) The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall submit to the President a joint report on the progress in implementing this order within 30 days of the date of this order, a second report within 60 days of the date of this order, a third report within 90 days of the date of this order, and a fourth report within 120 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 4. Implementing Uniform Screening Standards for All Immigration Programs. (a) The Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall implement a program, as part of the adjudication process for immigration benefits, to identify individuals seeking to enter the United States on a fraudulent basis with the intent to cause harm, or who are at risk of causing harm subsequent to their admission. This program will include the development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews; a database of identity documents proffered by applicants to ensure that duplicate documents are not used by multiple applicants; amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; a mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be; a process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest; and a mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in conjunction with the Secretary of State, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of this directive within 60 days of the date of this order, a second report within 100 days of the date of this order, and a third report within 200 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 5. Realignment of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program for Fiscal Year 2017. (a) The Secretary of State shall suspend the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) for 120 days. During the 120-day period, the Secretary of State, in conjunction with the Secretary of Homeland Security and in consultation with the Director of National Intelligence, shall review the USRAP application and adjudication process to determine what additional procedures should be taken to ensure that those approved for refugee admission do not pose a threat to the security and welfare of the United States, and shall implement such additional procedures. Refugee applicants who are already in the USRAP process may be admitted upon the initiation and completion of these revised procedures. Upon the date that is 120 days after the date of this order, the Secretary of State shall resume USRAP admissions only for nationals of countries for which the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence have jointly determined that such additional procedures are adequate to ensure the security and welfare of the United States.

(b) Upon the resumption of USRAP admissions, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, is further directed to make changes, to the extent permitted by law, to prioritize refugee claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution, provided that the religion of the individual is a minority religion in the individual's country of nationality. Where necessary and appropriate, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall recommend legislation to the President that would assist with such prioritization.

(c) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of nationals of Syria as refugees is detrimental to the interests of the United States and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I have determined that sufficient changes have been made to the USRAP to ensure that admission of Syrian refugees is consistent with the national interest.

(d) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of more than 50,000 refugees in fiscal year 2017 would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I determine that additional admissions would be in the national interest.

(e) Notwithstanding the temporary suspension imposed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such individuals as refugees is in the national interest -- including when the person is a religious minority in his country of nationality facing religious persecution, when admitting the person would enable the United States to conform its conduct to a preexisting international agreement, or when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship -- and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

(f) The Secretary of State shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of the directive in subsection (b) of this section regarding prioritization of claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution within 100 days of the date of this order and shall submit a second report within 200 days of the date of this order.

(g) It is the policy of the executive branch that, to the extent permitted by law and as practicable, State and local jurisdictions be granted a role in the process of determining the placement or settlement in their jurisdictions of aliens eligible to be admitted to the United States as refugees. To that end, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall examine existing law to determine the extent to which, consistent with applicable law, State and local jurisdictions may have greater involvement in the process of determining the placement or resettlement of refugees in their jurisdictions, and shall devise a proposal to lawfully promote such involvement.

Sec. 6. Rescission of Exercise of Authority Relating to the Terrorism Grounds of Inadmissibility. The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, consider rescinding the exercises of authority in section 212 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182, relating to the terrorism grounds of inadmissibility, as well as any related implementing memoranda.

Sec. 7. Expedited Completion of the Biometric Entry-Exit Tracking System. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall expedite the completion and implementation of a biometric entry-exit tracking system for all travelers to the United States, as recommended by the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall submit to the President periodic reports on the progress of the directive contained in subsection (a) of this section. The initial report shall be submitted within 100 days of the date of this order, a second report shall be submitted within 200 days of the date of this order, and a third report shall be submitted within 365 days of the date of this order. Further, the Secretary shall submit a report every 180 days thereafter until the system is fully deployed and operational.

Sec. 8. Visa Interview Security. (a) The Secretary of State shall immediately suspend the Visa Interview Waiver Program and ensure compliance with section 222 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1222, which requires that all individuals seeking a nonimmigrant visa undergo an in-person interview, subject to specific statutory exceptions.

(b) To the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, the Secretary of State shall immediately expand the Consular Fellows Program, including by substantially increasing the number of Fellows, lengthening or making permanent the period of service, and making language training at the Foreign Service Institute available to Fellows for assignment to posts outside of their area of core linguistic ability, to ensure that non-immigrant visa-interview wait times are not unduly affected.

Sec. 9. Visa Validity Reciprocity. The Secretary of State shall review all nonimmigrant visa reciprocity agreements to ensure that they are, with respect to each visa classification, truly reciprocal insofar as practicable with respect to validity period and fees, as required by sections 221(c) and 281 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1201(c) and 1351, and other treatment. If a country does not treat United States nationals seeking nonimmigrant visas in a reciprocal manner, the Secretary of State shall adjust the visa validity period, fee schedule, or other treatment to match the treatment of United States nationals by the foreign country, to the extent practicable.

Sec. 10. Transparency and Data Collection. (a) To be more transparent with the American people, and to more effectively implement policies and practices that serve the national interest, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall, consistent with applicable law and national security, collect and make publicly available within 180 days, and every 180 days thereafter:

(i) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been charged with terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; convicted of terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; or removed from the United States based on terrorism-related activity, affiliation, or material support to a terrorism-related organization, or any other national security reasons since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later;

(ii) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been radicalized after entry into the United States and engaged in terrorism-related acts, or who have provided material support to terrorism-related organizations in countries that pose a threat to the United States, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iii) information regarding the number and types of acts of gender-based violence against women, including honor killings, in the United States by foreign nationals, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iv) any other information relevant to public safety and security as determined by the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, including information on the immigration status of foreign nationals charged with major offenses.

(b) The Secretary of State shall, within one year of the date of this order, provide a report on the estimated long-term costs of the USRAP at the Federal, State, and local levels.

Sec. 11. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall submit to the President a report on the results of the review described in subsection (a) of this section, including the Secretary of Homeland Security's determination of the information needed for adjudications and a list of countries that do not provide adequate information, within 30 days of the date of this order. The Secretary of Homeland Security shall provide a copy of the report to the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence.

(c) To temporarily reduce investigative burdens on relevant agencies during the review period described in subsection (a) of this section, to ensure the proper review and maximum utilization of available resources for the screening of foreign nationals, and to ensure that adequate standards are established to prevent infiltration by foreign terrorists or criminals, pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the immigrant and nonimmigrant entry into the United States of aliens from countries referred to in section 217(a)(12) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1187(a)(12), would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and I hereby suspend entry into the United States, as immigrants and nonimmigrants, of such persons for 90 days from the date of this order (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas).

(d) Immediately upon receipt of the report described in subsection (b) of this section regarding the information needed for adjudications, the Secretary of State shall request all foreign governments that do not supply such information to start providing such information regarding their nationals within 60 days of notification.

(e) After the 60-day period described in subsection (d) of this section expires, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall submit to the President a list of countries recommended for inclusion on a Presidential proclamation that would prohibit the entry of foreign nationals (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas) from countries that do not provide the information requested pursuant to subsection (d) of this section until compliance occurs.

(f) At any point after submitting the list described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretary of State or the Secretary of Homeland Security may submit to the President the names of any additional countries recommended for similar treatment.

(g) Notwithstanding a suspension pursuant to subsection (c) of this section or pursuant to a Presidential proclamation described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may, on a case-by-case basis, and when in the national interest, issue visas or other immigration benefits to nationals of countries for which visas and benefits are otherwise blocked.

(h) The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall submit to the President a joint report on the progress in implementing this order within 30 days of the date of this order, a second report within 60 days of the date of this order, a third report within 90 days of the date of this order, and a fourth report within 120 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 4. Implementing Uniform Screening Standards for All Immigration Programs. (a) The Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall implement a program, as part of the adjudication process for immigration benefits, to identify individuals seeking to enter the United States on a fraudulent basis with the intent to cause harm, or who are at risk of causing harm subsequent to their admission. This program will include the development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews; a database of identity documents proffered by applicants to ensure that duplicate documents are not used by multiple applicants; amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; a mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be; a process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest; and a mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in conjunction with the Secretary of State, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of this directive within 60 days of the date of this order, a second report within 100 days of the date of this order, and a third report within 200 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 5. Realignment of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program for Fiscal Year 2017. (a) The Secretary of State shall suspend the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) for 120 days. During the 120-day period, the Secretary of State, in conjunction with the Secretary of Homeland Security and in consultation with the Director of National Intelligence, shall review the USRAP application and adjudication process to determine what additional procedures should be taken to ensure that those approved for refugee admission do not pose a threat to the security and welfare of the United States, and shall implement such additional procedures. Refugee applicants who are already in the USRAP process may be admitted upon the initiation and completion of these revised procedures. Upon the date that is 120 days after the date of this order, the Secretary of State shall resume USRAP admissions only for nationals of countries for which the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence have jointly determined that such additional procedures are adequate to ensure the security and welfare of the United States.

(b) Upon the resumption of USRAP admissions, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, is further directed to make changes, to the extent permitted by law, to prioritize refugee claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution, provided that the religion of the individual is a minority religion in the individual's country of nationality. Where necessary and appropriate, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall recommend legislation to the President that would assist with such prioritization.

(c) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of nationals of Syria as refugees is detrimental to the interests of the United States and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I have determined that sufficient changes have been made to the USRAP to ensure that admission of Syrian refugees is consistent with the national interest.

(d) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of more than 50,000 refugees in fiscal year 2017 would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I determine that additional admissions would be in the national interest.

(e) Notwithstanding the temporary suspension imposed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such individuals as refugees is in the national interest -- including when the person is a religious minority in his country of nationality facing religious persecution, when admitting the person would enable the United States to conform its conduct to a preexisting international agreement, or when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship -- and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

(f) The Secretary of State shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of the directive in subsection (b) of this section regarding prioritization of claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution within 100 days of the date of this order and shall submit a second report within 200 days of the date of this order.

(g) It is the policy of the executive branch that, to the extent permitted by law and as practicable, State and local jurisdictions be granted a role in the process of determining the placement or settlement in their jurisdictions of aliens eligible to be admitted to the United States as refugees. To that end, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall examine existing law to determine the extent to which, consistent with applicable law, State and local jurisdictions may have greater involvement in the process of determining the placement or resettlement of refugees in their jurisdictions, and shall devise a proposal to lawfully promote such involvement.

Sec. 6. Rescission of Exercise of Authority Relating to the Terrorism Grounds of Inadmissibility. The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, consider rescinding the exercises of authority in section 212 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182, relating to the terrorism grounds of inadmissibility, as well as any related implementing memoranda.

Sec. 7. Expedited Completion of the Biometric Entry-Exit Tracking System. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall expedite the completion and implementation of a biometric entry-exit tracking system for all travelers to the United States, as recommended by the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall submit to the President periodic reports on the progress of the directive contained in subsection (a) of this section. The initial report shall be submitted within 100 days of the date of this order, a second report shall be submitted within 200 days of the date of this order, and a third report shall be submitted within 365 days of the date of this order. Further, the Secretary shall submit a report every 180 days thereafter until the system is fully deployed and operational.

Sec. 8. Visa Interview Security. (a) The Secretary of State shall immediately suspend the Visa Interview Waiver Program and ensure compliance with section 222 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1222, which requires that all individuals seeking a nonimmigrant visa undergo an in-person interview, subject to specific statutory exceptions.

(b) To the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, the Secretary of State shall immediately expand the Consular Fellows Program, including by substantially increasing the number of Fellows, lengthening or making permanent the period of service, and making language training at the Foreign Service Institute available to Fellows for assignment to posts outside of their area of core linguistic ability, to ensure that non-immigrant visa-interview wait times are not unduly affected.

Sec. 9. Visa Validity Reciprocity. The Secretary of State shall review all nonimmigrant visa reciprocity agreements to ensure that they are, with respect to each visa classification, truly reciprocal insofar as practicable with respect to validity period and fees, as required by sections 221(c) and 281 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1201(c) and 1351, and other treatment. If a country does not treat United States nationals seeking nonimmigrant visas in a reciprocal manner, the Secretary of State shall adjust the visa validity period, fee schedule, or other treatment to match the treatment of United States nationals by the foreign country, to the extent practicable.

Sec. 10. Transparency and Data Collection. (a) To be more transparent with the American people, and to more effectively implement policies and practices that serve the national interest, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall, consistent with applicable law and national security, collect and make publicly available within 180 days, and every 180 days thereafter:

(i) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been charged with terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; convicted of terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; or removed from the United States based on terrorism-related activity, affiliation, or material support to a terrorism-related organization, or any other national security reasons since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later;

(ii) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been radicalized after entry into the United States and engaged in terrorism-related acts, or who have provided material support to terrorism-related organizations in countries that pose a threat to the United States, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iii) information regarding the number and types of acts of gender-based violence against women, including honor killings, in the United States by foreign nationals, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iv) any other information relevant to public safety and security as determined by the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, including information on the immigration status of foreign nationals charged with major offenses.

(b) The Secretary of State shall, within one year of the date of this order, provide a report on the estimated long-term costs of the USRAP at the Federal, State, and local levels.

Sec. 11. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

- - - - -

PROTECTING THE NATION FROM FOREIGN TERRORIST
ENTRY INTO THE UNITED STATES

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq., and section 301 of title 3, United States Code, and to protect the American people from terrorist attacks by foreign nationals admitted to the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. The visa-issuance process plays a crucial role in detecting individuals with terrorist ties and stopping them from entering the United States. Perhaps in no instance was that more apparent than the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, when State Department policy prevented consular officers from properly scrutinizing the visa applications of several of the 19 foreign nationals who went on to murder nearly 3,000 Americans. And while the visa-issuance process was reviewed and amended after the September 11 attacks to better detect would-be terrorists from receiving visas, these measures did not stop attacks by foreign nationals who were admitted to the United States.

Numerous foreign-born individuals have been convicted or implicated in terrorism-related crimes since September 11, 2001, including foreign nationals who entered the United States after receiving visitor, student, or employment visas, or who entered through the United States refugee resettlement program. Deteriorating conditions in certain countries due to war, strife, disaster, and civil unrest increase the likelihood that terrorists will use any means possible to enter the United States. The United States must be vigilant during the visa-issuance process to ensure that those approved for admission do not intend to harm Americans and that they have no ties to terrorism.

In order to protect Americans, the United States must ensure that those admitted to this country do not bear hostile attitudes toward it and its founding principles. The United States cannot, and should not, admit those who do not support the Constitution, or those who would place violent ideologies over American law. In addition, the United States should not admit those who engage in acts of bigotry or hatred (including "honor" killings, other forms of violence against women, or the persecution of those who practice religions different from their own) or those who would oppress Americans of any race, gender, or sexual orientation.

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the United States to protect its citizens from foreign nationals who intend to commit terrorist attacks in the United States; and to prevent the admission of foreign nationals who intend to exploit United States immigration laws for malevolent purposes.

Sec. 3. Suspension of Issuance of Visas and Other Immigration Benefits to Nationals of Countries of Particular Concern. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall immediately conduct a review to determine the information needed from any country to adjudicate any visa, admission, or other benefit under the INA (adjudications) in order to determine that the individual seeking the benefit is who the individual claims to be and is not a security or public-safety threat.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall submit to the President a report on the results of the review described in subsection (a) of this section, including the Secretary of Homeland Security's determination of the information needed for adjudications and a list of countries that do not provide adequate information, within 30 days of the date of this order. The Secretary of Homeland Security shall provide a copy of the report to the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence.

(c) To temporarily reduce investigative burdens on relevant agencies during the review period described in subsection (a) of this section, to ensure the proper review and maximum utilization of available resources for the screening of foreign nationals, and to ensure that adequate standards are established to prevent infiltration by foreign terrorists or criminals, pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the immigrant and nonimmigrant entry into the United States of aliens from countries referred to in section 217(a)(12) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1187(a)(12), would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and I hereby suspend entry into the United States, as immigrants and nonimmigrants, of such persons for 90 days from the date of this order (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas).

(d) Immediately upon receipt of the report described in subsection (b) of this section regarding the information needed for adjudications, the Secretary of State shall request all foreign governments that do not supply such information to start providing such information regarding their nationals within 60 days of notification.

(e) After the 60-day period described in subsection (d) of this section expires, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall submit to the President a list of countries recommended for inclusion on a Presidential proclamation that would prohibit the entry of foreign nationals (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas) from countries that do not provide the information requested pursuant to subsection (d) of this section until compliance occurs.

(f) At any point after submitting the list described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretary of State or the Secretary of Homeland Security may submit to the President the names of any additional countries recommended for similar treatment.

(g) Notwithstanding a suspension pursuant to subsection (c) of this section or pursuant to a Presidential proclamation described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may, on a case-by-case basis, and when in the national interest, issue visas or other immigration benefits to nationals of countries for which visas and benefits are otherwise blocked.

(h) The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall submit to the President a joint report on the progress in implementing this order within 30 days of the date of this order, a second report within 60 days of the date of this order, a third report within 90 days of the date of this order, and a fourth report within 120 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 4. Implementing Uniform Screening Standards for All Immigration Programs. (a) The Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall implement a program, as part of the adjudication process for immigration benefits, to identify individuals seeking to enter the United States on a fraudulent basis with the intent to cause harm, or who are at risk of causing harm subsequent to their admission. This program will include the development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews; a database of identity documents proffered by applicants to ensure that duplicate documents are not used by multiple applicants; amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; a mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be; a process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest; and a mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in conjunction with the Secretary of State, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of this directive within 60 days of the date of this order, a second report within 100 days of the date of this order, and a third report within 200 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 5. Realignment of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program for Fiscal Year 2017. (a) The Secretary of State shall suspend the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) for 120 days. During the 120-day period, the Secretary of State, in conjunction with the Secretary of Homeland Security and in consultation with the Director of National Intelligence, shall review the USRAP application and adjudication process to determine what additional procedures should be taken to ensure that those approved for refugee admission do not pose a threat to the security and welfare of the United States, and shall implement such additional procedures. Refugee applicants who are already in the USRAP process may be admitted upon the initiation and completion of these revised procedures. Upon the date that is 120 days after the date of this order, the Secretary of State shall resume USRAP admissions only for nationals of countries for which the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence have jointly determined that such additional procedures are adequate to ensure the security and welfare of the United States.

(b) Upon the resumption of USRAP admissions, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, is further directed to make changes, to the extent permitted by law, to prioritize refugee claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution, provided that the religion of the individual is a minority religion in the individual's country of nationality. Where necessary and appropriate, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall recommend legislation to the President that would assist with such prioritization.

(c) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of nationals of Syria as refugees is detrimental to the interests of the United States and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I have determined that sufficient changes have been made to the USRAP to ensure that admission of Syrian refugees is consistent with the national interest.

(d) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of more than 50,000 refugees in fiscal year 2017 would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I determine that additional admissions would be in the national interest.

(e) Notwithstanding the temporary suspension imposed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such individuals as refugees is in the national interest -- including when the person is a religious minority in his country of nationality facing religious persecution, when admitting the person would enable the United States to conform its conduct to a preexisting international agreement, or when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship -- and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

(f) The Secretary of State shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of the directive in subsection (b) of this section regarding prioritization of claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution within 100 days of the date of this order and shall submit a second report within 200 days of the date of this order.

(g) It is the policy of the executive branch that, to the extent permitted by law and as practicable, State and local jurisdictions be granted a role in the process of determining the placement or settlement in their jurisdictions of aliens eligible to be admitted to the United States as refugees. To that end, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall examine existing law to determine the extent to which, consistent with applicable law, State and local jurisdictions may have greater involvement in the process of determining the placement or resettlement of refugees in their jurisdictions, and shall devise a proposal to lawfully promote such involvement.

Sec. 6. Rescission of Exercise of Authority Relating to the Terrorism Grounds of Inadmissibility. The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, consider rescinding the exercises of authority in section 212 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182, relating to the terrorism grounds of inadmissibility, as well as any related implementing memoranda.

Sec. 7. Expedited Completion of the Biometric Entry-Exit Tracking System. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall expedite the completion and implementation of a biometric entry-exit tracking system for all travelers to the United States, as recommended by the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall submit to the President periodic reports on the progress of the directive contained in subsection (a) of this section. The initial report shall be submitted within 100 days of the date of this order, a second report shall be submitted within 200 days of the date of this order, and a third report shall be submitted within 365 days of the date of this order. Further, the Secretary shall submit a report every 180 days thereafter until the system is fully deployed and operational.

Sec. 8. Visa Interview Security. (a) The Secretary of State shall immediately suspend the Visa Interview Waiver Program and ensure compliance with section 222 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1222, which requires that all individuals seeking a nonimmigrant visa undergo an in-person interview, subject to specific statutory exceptions.

(b) To the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, the Secretary of State shall immediately expand the Consular Fellows Program, including by substantially increasing the number of Fellows, lengthening or making permanent the period of service, and making language training at the Foreign Service Institute available to Fellows for assignment to posts outside of their area of core linguistic ability, to ensure that non-immigrant visa-interview wait times are not unduly affected.

Sec. 9. Visa Validity Reciprocity. The Secretary of State shall review all nonimmigrant visa reciprocity agreements to ensure that they are, with respect to each visa classification, truly reciprocal insofar as practicable with respect to validity period and fees, as required by sections 221(c) and 281 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1201(c) and 1351, and other treatment. If a country does not treat United States nationals seeking nonimmigrant visas in a reciprocal manner, the Secretary of State shall adjust the visa validity period, fee schedule, or other treatment to match the treatment of United States nationals by the foreign country, to the extent practicable.

Sec. 10. Transparency and Data Collection. (a) To be more transparent with the American people, and to more effectively implement policies and practices that serve the national interest, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall, consistent with applicable law and national security, collect and make publicly available within 180 days, and every 180 days thereafter:

(i) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been charged with terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; convicted of terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; or removed from the United States based on terrorism-related activity, affiliation, or material support to a terrorism-related organization, or any other national security reasons since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later;

(ii) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been radicalized after entry into the United States and engaged in terrorism-related acts, or who have provided material support to terrorism-related organizations in countries that pose a threat to the United States, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iii) information regarding the number and types of acts of gender-based violence against women, including honor killings, in the United States by foreign nationals, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iv) any other information relevant to public safety and security as determined by the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, including information on the immigration status of foreign nationals charged with major offenses.

(b) The Secretary of State shall, within one year of the date of this order, provide a report on the estimated long-term costs of the USRAP at the Federal, State, and local levels.

Sec. 11. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

Please see below regarding recent Executive Order. Note initial guidance which basically says two things:

1. Coordinate with local OFO and ensure alignment.
2. (b)(5), (b)(7)(E)
(b)(5), (b)(7)(E)

It is also prudent for Sector staffs to provide additional scrutiny of vessel arrivals until we receive more guidance (expected Monday).

Note also one inbound vessel to Miami on Monday per below email.

PROTECTING THE NATION FROM FOREIGN TERRORIST
ENTRY INTO THE UNITED STATES

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq., and section 301 of title 3, United States Code, and to protect the American people from terrorist attacks by foreign nationals admitted to the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. The visa-issuance process plays a crucial role in detecting individuals with terrorist ties and stopping them from entering the United States. Perhaps in no instance was that more apparent than the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, when State Department policy prevented consular officers from properly scrutinizing the visa applications of several of the 19 foreign nationals who went on to murder nearly 3,000 Americans. And while the visa-issuance process was reviewed and amended after the September 11 attacks to better detect would-be terrorists from receiving visas, these measures did not stop attacks by foreign nationals who were admitted to the United States.

Numerous foreign-born individuals have been convicted or implicated in terrorism-related crimes since September 11, 2001, including foreign nationals who entered the United States after receiving visitor, student, or employment visas, or who entered through the United States refugee resettlement program. Deteriorating conditions in certain countries due to war, strife, disaster, and civil unrest increase the likelihood that terrorists will use any means possible to enter the United States. The United States must be vigilant during the visa-issuance process to ensure that those approved for admission do not intend to harm Americans and that they have no ties to terrorism.

In order to protect Americans, the United States must ensure that those admitted to this country do not bear hostile attitudes toward it and its founding principles. The United States cannot, and should not, admit those who do not support the Constitution, or those who would place violent ideologies over American law. In addition, the United States should not admit those who engage in acts of bigotry or hatred (including "honor" killings, other forms of violence against women, or the persecution of those who practice religions different from their own) or those who would oppress Americans of any race, gender, or sexual orientation.

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the United States to protect its citizens from foreign nationals who intend to commit terrorist attacks in the United States; and to prevent the admission of foreign nationals who intend to exploit United States immigration laws for malevolent purposes.

Sec. 3. Suspension of Issuance of Visas and Other Immigration Benefits to Nationals of Countries of Particular Concern. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall immediately conduct a review to determine the information needed from any country to adjudicate any visa, admission, or other benefit under the INA (adjudications) in order to determine that the individual seeking the benefit is who the individual claims to be and is not a security or public-safety threat.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall submit to the President a report on the results of the review described in subsection (a) of this section, including the Secretary of Homeland Security's determination of the information needed for adjudications and a list of countries that do not provide adequate information, within 30 days of the date of this order. The Secretary of Homeland Security shall provide a copy of the report to the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence.

(c) To temporarily reduce investigative burdens on relevant agencies during the review period described in subsection (a) of this section, to ensure the proper review and maximum utilization of available resources for the screening of foreign nationals, and to ensure that adequate standards are established to prevent infiltration by foreign terrorists or criminals, pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the immigrant and nonimmigrant entry into the United States of aliens from countries referred to in section 217(a)(12) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1187(a)(12), would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and I hereby suspend entry into the United States, as immigrants and nonimmigrants, of such persons for 90 days from the date of this order (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas).

(d) Immediately upon receipt of the report described in subsection (b) of this section regarding the information needed for adjudications, the Secretary of State shall request all foreign governments that do not supply such information to start providing such information regarding their nationals within 60 days of notification.

(e) After the 60-day period described in subsection (d) of this section expires, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall submit to the President a list of countries recommended for inclusion on a Presidential proclamation that would prohibit the entry of foreign nationals (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas) from countries that do not provide the information requested pursuant to subsection (d) of this section until compliance occurs.

(f) At any point after submitting the list described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretary of State or the Secretary of Homeland Security may submit to the President the names of any additional countries recommended for similar treatment.

(g) Notwithstanding a suspension pursuant to subsection (c) of this section or pursuant to a Presidential proclamation described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may, on a case-by-case basis, and when in the national interest, issue visas or other immigration benefits to nationals of countries for which visas and benefits are otherwise blocked.

(h) The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall submit to the President a joint report on the progress in implementing this order within 30 days of the date of this order, a second report within 60 days of the date of this order, a third report within 90 days of the date of this order, and a fourth report within 120 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 4. Implementing Uniform Screening Standards for All Immigration Programs. (a) The Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall implement a program, as part of the adjudication process for immigration benefits, to identify individuals seeking to enter the United States on a fraudulent basis with the intent to cause harm, or who are at risk of causing harm subsequent to their admission. This program will include the development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews; a database of identity documents proffered by applicants to ensure that duplicate documents are not used by multiple applicants; amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; a mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be; a process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest; and a mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in conjunction with the Secretary of State, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of this directive within 60 days of the date of this order, a second report within 100 days of the date of this order, and a third report within 200 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 5. Realignment of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program for Fiscal Year 2017. (a) The Secretary of State shall suspend the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) for 120 days. During the 120-day period, the Secretary of State, in conjunction with the Secretary of Homeland Security and in consultation with the Director of National Intelligence, shall review the USRAP application and adjudication process to determine what additional procedures should be taken to ensure that those approved for refugee admission do not pose a threat to the security and welfare of the United States, and shall implement such additional procedures. Refugee applicants who are already in the USRAP process may be admitted upon the initiation and completion of these revised procedures. Upon the date that is 120 days after the date of this order, the Secretary of State shall resume USRAP admissions only for nationals of countries for which the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence have jointly determined that such additional procedures are adequate to ensure the security and welfare of the United States.

(b) Upon the resumption of USRAP admissions, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, is further directed to make changes, to the extent permitted by law, to prioritize refugee claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution, provided that the religion of the individual is a minority religion in the individual's country of nationality. Where necessary and appropriate, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall recommend legislation to the President that would assist with such prioritization.

(c) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of nationals of Syria as refugees is detrimental to the interests of the United States and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I have determined that sufficient changes have been made to the USRAP to ensure that admission of Syrian refugees is consistent with the national interest.

(d) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of more than 50,000 refugees in fiscal year 2017 would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I determine that additional admissions would be in the national interest.

(e) Notwithstanding the temporary suspension imposed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such individuals as refugees is in the national interest -- including when the person is a religious minority in his country of nationality facing religious persecution, when admitting the person would enable the United States to conform its conduct to a preexisting international agreement, or when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship -- and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

(f) The Secretary of State shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of the directive in subsection (b) of this section regarding prioritization of claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution within 100 days of the date of this order and shall submit a second report within 200 days of the date of this order.

(g) It is the policy of the executive branch that, to the extent permitted by law and as practicable, State and local jurisdictions be granted a role in the process of determining the placement or settlement in their jurisdictions of aliens eligible to be admitted to the United States as refugees. To that end, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall examine existing law to determine the extent to which, consistent with applicable law, State and local jurisdictions may have greater involvement in the process of determining the placement or resettlement of refugees in their jurisdictions, and shall devise a proposal to lawfully promote such involvement.

Sec. 6. Rescission of Exercise of Authority Relating to the Terrorism Grounds of Inadmissibility. The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, consider rescinding the exercises of authority in section 212 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182, relating to the terrorism grounds of inadmissibility, as well as any related implementing memoranda.

Sec. 7. Expedited Completion of the Biometric Entry-Exit Tracking System. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall expedite the completion and implementation of a biometric entry-exit tracking system for all travelers to the United States, as recommended by the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall submit to the President periodic reports on the progress of the directive contained in subsection (a) of this section. The initial report shall be submitted within 100 days of the date of this order, a second report shall be submitted within 200 days of the date of this order, and a third report shall be submitted within 365 days of the date of this order. Further, the Secretary shall submit a report every 180 days thereafter until the system is fully deployed and operational.

Sec. 8. Visa Interview Security. (a) The Secretary of State shall immediately suspend the Visa Interview Waiver Program and ensure compliance with section 222 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1222, which requires that all individuals seeking a nonimmigrant visa undergo an in-person interview, subject to specific statutory exceptions.

(b) To the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, the Secretary of State shall immediately expand the Consular Fellows Program, including by substantially increasing the number of Fellows, lengthening or making permanent the period of service, and making language training at the Foreign Service Institute available to Fellows for assignment to posts outside of their area of core linguistic ability, to ensure that non-immigrant visa-interview wait times are not unduly affected.

Sec. 9. Visa Validity Reciprocity. The Secretary of State shall review all nonimmigrant visa reciprocity agreements to ensure that they are, with respect to each visa classification, truly reciprocal insofar as practicable with respect to validity period and fees, as required by sections 221(c) and 281 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1201(c) and 1351, and other treatment. If a country does not treat United States nationals seeking nonimmigrant visas in a reciprocal manner, the Secretary of State shall adjust the visa validity period, fee schedule, or other treatment to match the treatment of United States nationals by the foreign country, to the extent practicable.

Sec. 10. Transparency and Data Collection. (a) To be more transparent with the American people, and to more effectively implement policies and practices that serve the national interest, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall, consistent with applicable law and national security, collect and make publicly available within 180 days, and every 180 days thereafter:

(i) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been charged with terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; convicted of terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; or removed from the United States based on terrorism-related activity, affiliation, or material support to a terrorism-related organization, or any other national security reasons since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later;

(ii) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been radicalized after entry into the United States and engaged in terrorism-related acts, or who have provided material support to terrorism-related organizations in countries that pose a threat to the United States, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iii) information regarding the number and types of acts of gender-based violence against women, including honor killings, in the United States by foreign nationals, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iv) any other information relevant to public safety and security as determined by the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, including information on the immigration status of foreign nationals charged with major offenses.

(b) The Secretary of State shall, within one year of the date of this order, provide a report on the estimated long-term costs of the USRAP at the Federal, State, and local levels.

Sec. 11. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

(a) The Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall implement a program, as part of the adjudication process for immigration benefits, to identify individuals seeking to enter the United States on a fraudulent basis with the intent to cause harm, or who are at risk of causing harm subsequent to their admission. This program will include the development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews; a database of identity documents proffered by applicants to ensure that duplicate documents are not used by multiple applicants; amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; a mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be; a process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest; and a mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in conjunction with the Secretary of State, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of this directive within 60 days of the date of this order, a second report within 100 days of the date of this order, and a third report within 200 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 5. Realignment of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program for Fiscal Year 2017. (a) The Secretary of State shall suspend the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) for 120 days. During the 120-day period, the Secretary of State, in conjunction with the Secretary of Homeland Security and in consultation with the Director of National Intelligence, shall review the USRAP application and adjudication process to determine what additional procedures should be taken to ensure that those approved for refugee admission do not pose a threat to the security and welfare of the United States, and shall implement such additional procedures. Refugee applicants who are already in the USRAP process may be admitted upon the initiation and completion of these revised procedures. Upon the date that is 120 days after the date of this order, the Secretary of State shall resume USRAP admissions only for nationals of countries for which the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence have jointly determined that such additional procedures are adequate to ensure the security and welfare of the United States.

(b) Upon the resumption of USRAP admissions, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, is further directed to make changes, to the extent permitted by law, to prioritize refugee claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution, provided that the religion of the individual is a minority religion in the individual's country of nationality. Where necessary and appropriate, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall recommend legislation to the President that would assist with such prioritization.

(c) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of nationals of Syria as refugees is detrimental to the interests of the United States and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I have determined that sufficient changes have been made to the USRAP to ensure that admission of Syrian refugees is consistent with the national interest.

(d) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of more than 50,000 refugees in fiscal year 2017 would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I determine that additional admissions would be in the national interest.

(e) Notwithstanding the temporary suspension imposed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such individuals as refugees is in the national interest -- including when the person is a religious minority in his country of nationality facing religious persecution, when admitting the person would enable the United States to conform its conduct to a preexisting international agreement, or when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship -- and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

(f) The Secretary of State shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of the directive in subsection (b) of this section regarding prioritization of claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution within 100 days of the date of this order and shall submit a second report within 200 days of the date of this order.

(g) It is the policy of the executive branch that, to the extent permitted by law and as practicable, State and local jurisdictions be granted a role in the process of determining the placement or settlement in their jurisdictions of aliens eligible to be admitted to the United States as refugees. To that end, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall examine existing law to determine the extent to which, consistent with applicable law, State and local jurisdictions may have greater involvement in the process of determining the placement or resettlement of refugees in their jurisdictions, and shall devise a proposal to lawfully promote such involvement.

Sec. 6. Rescission of Exercise of Authority Relating to the Terrorism Grounds of Inadmissibility. The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, consider rescinding the exercises of authority in section 212 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182, relating to the terrorism grounds of inadmissibility, as well as any related implementing memoranda.

Sec. 7. Expedited Completion of the Biometric Entry-Exit Tracking System. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall expedite the completion and implementation of a biometric entry-exit tracking system for all travelers to the United States, as recommended by the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall submit to the President periodic reports on the progress of the directive contained in subsection (a) of this section. The initial report shall be submitted within 100 days of the date of this order, a second report shall be submitted within 200 days of the date of this order, and a third report shall be submitted within 365 days of the date of this order. Further, the Secretary shall submit a report every 180 days thereafter until the system is fully deployed and operational.

Sec. 8. Visa Interview Security. (a) The Secretary of State shall immediately suspend the Visa Interview Waiver Program and ensure compliance with section 222 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1222, which requires that all individuals seeking a nonimmigrant visa undergo an in-person interview, subject to specific statutory exceptions.

(b) To the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, the Secretary of State shall immediately expand the Consular Fellows Program, including by substantially increasing the number of Fellows, lengthening or making permanent the period of service, and making language training at the Foreign Service Institute available to Fellows for assignment to posts outside of their area of core linguistic ability, to ensure that non-immigrant visa-interview wait times are not unduly affected.

Sec. 9. Visa Validity Reciprocity. The Secretary of State shall review all nonimmigrant visa reciprocity agreements to ensure that they are, with respect to each visa classification, truly reciprocal insofar as practicable with respect to validity period and fees, as required by sections 221(c) and 281 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1201(c) and 1351, and other treatment. If a country does not treat United States nationals seeking nonimmigrant visas in a reciprocal manner, the Secretary of State shall adjust the visa validity period, fee schedule, or other treatment to match the treatment of United States nationals by the foreign country, to the extent practicable.

Sec. 10. Transparency and Data Collection. (a) To be more transparent with the American people, and to more effectively implement policies and practices that serve the national interest, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall, consistent with applicable law and national security, collect and make publicly available within 180 days, and every 180 days thereafter:

(i) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been charged with terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; convicted of terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; or removed from the United States based on terrorism-related activity, affiliation, or material support to a terrorism-related organization, or any other national security reasons since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later;

(ii) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been radicalized after entry into the United States and engaged in terrorism-related acts, or who have provided material support to terrorism-related organizations in countries that pose a threat to the United States, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iii) information regarding the number and types of acts of gender-based violence against women, including honor killings, in the United States by foreign nationals, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iv) any other information relevant to public safety and security as determined by the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, including information on the immigration status of foreign nationals charged with major offenses.

(b) The Secretary of State shall, within one year of the date of this order, provide a report on the estimated long-term costs of the USRAP at the Federal, State, and local levels.

Sec. 11. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

similarly situated,

Petitioners,

- against -

DONALD TRUMP, President of the United States; U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY ("DHS"); U.S.
CUSTOMS AND BORDER PROTECTION
("CBP"); JOHN KELLY, Secretary of DHS;
KEVIN K. MCALEENAN, Acting
Commissioner of CBP; JAMES T.

Respondents.

DECISION AND ORDER

17 Civ. 480 (AMD)

ANN DONNELLY, District Judge.

On January 28, 2017, the petitioners filed an Emergency Motion for Stay of Removal on behalf of themselves and others similarly situated.

IT APPEARING to the Court from the Emergency Motion for Stay of Removal, the other submissions, the arguments of counsel, and the hearing held on the 28th of January, 2017,

1. The petitioners have a strong likelihood of success in establishing that the removal of the petitioner and others similarly situated violates their rights to Due Process and Equal Protection guaranteed by the United States Constitution;

2. There is imminent danger that, absent the stay of removal, there will be substantial and irreparable injury to refugees, visa-holders, and other individuals from nations subject to the January 27, 2017 Executive Order;
3. The issuance of the stay of removal will not injure the other parties interested in the proceeding;
4. It is appropriate and just that, pending completion of a hearing before the Court on the merits of the Petition, that the Respondents be enjoined and restrained from the commission of further acts and misconduct in violation of the Constitution as described in the Emergency Motion for Stay of Removal.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the respondents, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all members and persons acting in concert or participation with them, from the date of this Order, are ENJOINED AND RESTRAINED from, in any manner or by any means, removing individuals with refugee applications approved by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services as part of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program, holders of valid immigrant and non-immigrant visas, and other individuals from Iraq, Syria, Iran, Sudan, Libya, Somalia, and Yemen legally authorized to enter the United States.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that to assure compliance with the Court's order, the Court directs service of this Order upon the United States Marshal for the Eastern District of New York, and further directs the United States Marshals Service to take those actions deemed necessary to enforce the provisions and prohibitions set forth in this Order.

SO ORDERED.

Field Liaison/Enforcement Programs-

I received the below message from the Area Port Director Seattle, the Washington State Governors aide reached out to him for assistance on a Somalian who immigrant visa was revoked due to the EO and they need assistance from the DOS to get a transportation letter for he can board the flight. CBP Sea-Tac retained the immigrant visa packet.

Can Field Liaison reach out to DOS for assistance to allow travel back to Seattle and reactivate his immigrant visa. If the DOS has any questions they can reach out to Assistant Port Director (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) (copied on this message). The port is attempting to expedite travelers return back to Seattle

Thank you

I received the below email from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) of Governor Jay Inslee staff. He outlined some specific actions that they expect CBP Seattle to execute. I responded to his email by informing him that Seattle CBP is willing to assist as much as possible to process the (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) without any unnecessary delays upon his arrival, however, our local ability to contact the State Department and airline overseas (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is out of our immediate abilities. We will be elevating this situation up through our chain of command to Washington, DC, and possibly a CBP office at the Headquarters level could facilitate what you have outlined with the State Department- the reissuance of the visa and/or provide a travel letter for (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) since he does not have a passport and visa.

We sent bullets to your attention, and is it possible for you to ask or point out that HQ may need to assist in coordinating some of these action with the Department of State.

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and all - I am including (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from CPB intergovernmental affairs, and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from the Port of Seattle on this chain.

It appears that CBP is prepared to allow (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to enter the United States upon his entry at Sea-Tac airport, under the terms of his previously-issued visa. Furthermore, the CPB team is helpfully prepared to work with the airline carrier to ensure they are aware of (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) ability to enter the U.S., so that he is allowed to board his flight.

However, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) physical immigrant visa packet and visa were held in Seattle when he was sent back to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on Saturday. My understanding is that he is not in possession of a passport, but was relying on these documents for entry and for travel. Furthermore, our understand is that his visa remains listed as "cancelled" in the State Department system. And, because of these things, and given the fact that he has to travel from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) before continuing on a flight to Seattle, there is a concern that he will not be allowed to board his flight(s), due to the airline or potentially in an issue with European customs in intra-Euro travel.

Can the CPB team assist (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client in getting in touch with the State Department to 1) revise his "cancelled" visa status, and 2) obtain a written document that will clearly indicate that his ability to travel from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to Seattle? Again, we appreciate your willingness to communicate directly with the carrier, as well. That will also be important, but (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client are worried it will be insufficient.

Thank you for your assistance and attention in this matter.

Situational Awareness - Assistance Provided to Immigrant Affected by EO (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) February 4, 2017

Affected Port: Seattle-Tacoma International Airport

Date of Report: February 4, 2017

Executive Summary:

On January 28, 2017 a male citizen of Somalia (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) arrived aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) The passenger applied for admission as a first time immigrant. He was referred to hard secondary because he met the criteria for January 27th Presidential Executive Order. He was found inadmissible based on the Executive Order and was allowed to withdraw his application for admission. His immigrant visa package was retained by CBP and his Immigrant Visa was cancelled. He was returned to London later that day on (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

On February 3, 2017, in response to a District Court ruling enjoining the Executive Order, the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Edward Ramotowski) for the Department of State reversed the provisional revocation of all visa provisionally revoked on January 27, 2017.

On February 4, 2017, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) immigration attorney, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) seeking assistance in getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S. She indicated that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was currently in (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and wished to return to the U.S. as an immigrant, however he is not in possession of a passport or an immigrant visa that would allow him to board a flight to the U.S. In an attempt to facilitate his return, CBP Seattle attempted to contact IAP (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to request assistance with boarding (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on a Seattle bound flight. However, due to time difference, no officers were on duty. It was later determined that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was actually in (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and that he would be boarding a flight there. CBP Seattle informed (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) that Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he could get to Seattle, however he would need to contact the Department of State (DOS) to obtain a boarding letter and visa. (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that it wasn't a CBP issue and that she would be reaching out to Governor Inslee's office to get assistance in resolving the matter with the DOS so (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) could board the plane.

Details of the Incident / Date and Time:

* On January 27, 2014, Presidential Executive Order "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States" enacted.

* On January 28, 2017 at 1035 hours, Somalia citizen, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) arrives aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and applies for admission as a new immigrant.

* (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is denied admission and allowed to withdraw his application for admission.

* At 1345 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is returned to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

* On February 3, 2017 at approximately 1700 hours, a District Court rules issues a temporary restraining order suspending the Presidential Executive Order.

* On February 4, 2017, at 1150 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) by email, seeking assistance with getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S.

* At 1210 hours, APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to help coordinate (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) return.

* At 1227 hours, multiple attempts to contact IAP (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) were made, but were unsuccessful.

* (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was informed that CBP Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he arrive in Seattle but she would need to contact the DOS about obtaining a boarding letter and/or a visa that would allow him to board a plane to the U.S.

* (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that CBP could not help her with this and that she would seek assistance from Governor Inslee's office to help resolve the matter with DOS.

AP Seattle has been tracking on this vessel in conjunction with the USCG. At this time our information is this vessel will not call at any U.S. dock. It will hover at anchor, take on fuel from a local commercial fuel supplier's barge and then move to Vancouver, BC.

Details:

The plan for the vessel is to attempt to take bunkers (ship's fuel) on the 4th unless the fuel is not available. If the fuel is not available they plan to drift until it's ready. Specifically they do not want to be at anchor for more than 24 hours to avoid having to make U.S. entry.

Field Liaison/Enforcement Programs-

I received the below message from the Area Port Director Seattle, the Washington State Governors aide reached out to him for assistance on a Somalian who immigrant visa was revoked due to the EO and they need assistance from the DOS to get a transportation letter for he can board the flight. CBP Sea-Tac retained the immigrant visa packet.

Can Field Liaison reach out to DOS for assistance to allow travel back to Seattle and reactivate his immigrant visa. If the DOS has any questions they can reach out to Assistant Port Director (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) (copied on this message). The port is attempting to expedite travelers return back to Seattle

Thank you

I received the below email from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) of Governor Jay Inslee staff. He outlined some specific actions that they expect CBP Seattle to execute. I responded to his email by informing him that Seattle CBP is willing to assist as much as possible to process the (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) without any unnecessary delays upon his arrival, however, our local ability to contact the State Department and airline overseas (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is out of our immediate abilities. We will be elevating this situation up through our chain of command to Washington, DC, and possibly a CBP office at the Headquarters level could facilitate what you have outlined with the State Department- the reissuance of the visa and/or provide a travel letter for (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) since he does not have a passport and visa.

We sent bullets to your attention, and is it possible for you to ask or point out that HQ may need to assist in coordinating some of these action with the Department of State.

Thank you,

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and all - I am including (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from CPB intergovernmental affairs, and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from the Port of Seattle on this chain.

It appears that CBP is prepared to allow (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to enter the United States upon his entry at Sea-Tac airport, under the terms of his previously-issued visa. Furthermore, the CPB team is helpfully prepared to work with the airline carrier to ensure they are aware of (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) ability to enter the U.S., so that he is allowed to board his flight.

However, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) physical immigrant visa packet and visa were held in Seattle when he was sent back to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on Saturday. My understanding is that he is not in possession of a passport, but was relying on these documents for entry and for travel. Furthermore, our understand is that his visa remains listed as "cancelled" in the State Department system. Can the CPB team assist (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client in getting in touch with the State Department to 1) revise his "cancelled" visa status, and 2) obtain a written document that will clearly indicate that his ability to travel from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to Seattle? Again, we appreciate your willingness to communicate directly with the carrier, as well. That will also be important, but (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client are worried it will be insufficient.

Date of Report: February 4, 2017

Executive Summary:

On January 28, 2017 a male citizen of Somalia (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) arrived aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C). The passenger applied for admission as a first time immigrant. He was referred to hard secondary because he met the criteria for January 27th Presidential Executive Order. He was found inadmissible based on the Executive Order and was allowed to withdraw his application for admission. His immigrant visa package was retained by CBP and his Immigrant Visa was cancelled. He was returned to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) later that day on (b)(6), (b)(7)(C).

On February 3, 2017, in response to a District Court ruling enjoining the Executive Order, the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Edward Ramotowski) for the Department of State reversed the provisional revocation of all visa provisionally revoked on January 27, 2017.

On February 4, 2017, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) immigration attorney, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) seeking assistance in getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S. She indicated that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was currently in (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and wished to return to the U.S. as an immigrant, however he is not in possession of a passport or an immigrant visa that would allow him to board a flight to the U.S. In an attempt to facilitate his return, CBP Seattle attempted to contact IAP (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to request assistance with boarding (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on a Seattle bound flight. However, due to time difference, no officers were on duty. It was later determined that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was actually in (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and that he would be boarding a flight there. CBP Seattle informed (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) that Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he could get to Seattle, however he would need to contact the Department of State (DOS) to obtain a boarding letter and visa. (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that it wasn't a CBP issue and that she would be reaching out to Governor Inslee's office to get assistance in resolving the matter with the DOS so (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) could board the plane.

Details of the Incident / Date and Time:

· On January 27, 2014, Presidential Executive Order "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States" enacted.

· At 1345 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is returned to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C).

· On February 3, 2017 at approximately 1700 hours, a District Court rules issues a temporary restraining order suspending the Presidential Executive Order.

* On February 4, 2017, at 1150 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) by email, seeking assistance with getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S.

* At 1210 hours, APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to help coordinate (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) return.

* At 1227 hours, multiple attempts to contact IAP (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) were made, but were unsuccessful.

* (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was informed that CBP Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he arrive in Seattle but she would need to contact the DOS about obtaining a boarding letter and/or a visa that would allow him to board a plane to the U.S.

* (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that CBP could not help her with this and that she would seek assistance from Governor Inslee's office to help resolve the matter with DOS.

ACTION MEMO FOR ACTING SECRETARY (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

FROM: PRM (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Acting

SUBJECT: (SBU) Determination to exempt certain refugees from the President's Executive Order so they may enter the United States

Recommendation

(SBU) That you determine to admit the 872 refugees listed in Tab 1 scheduled to enter the United States through February 2 because their admission is in the national interest and would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

Approve (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Disapprove _____

Background

(SBU) The Executive Order "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States" (EO) suspends certain aspects of the US Refugee Admissions Program for 120 days, including the entry of refugees. Section 5(e) of the EO provides that "the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such refugees is in the national interest – including ... when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship – and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States."

(SBU) PRM is seeking for you and DHS to determine jointly to admit 872 refugees who are already in transit through February 2. This group does not include nationals from the specific countries restricted in the Executive Order (Iran, Iraq, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, and Yemen). A list of these individuals is attached at Tab 1. Many of these individuals have already been moved from camps or other remote locations to U.S.-run refugee processing hubs in preparation for departure. Most have sold or relinquished their accommodations, household effects and other belongings; given up employment; and or discontinued schooling for their children. Many have had their residency permits rescinded by their countries of asylum once granted exit permits to imminently depart to the United States and others have been preparing for life in the United States to join U.S. family members who are already here. These individuals are mostly families with children and immediate cancellation of their travel would impose extreme hardship on people who have fled persecution and conflict in order to be resettled in the U.S. Without this humanitarian measure, some refugees could be stuck in limbo or even risk being returned to a country where they would face persecution. As such, each individual in this group is in transit and denying them admission would cause undue hardship.

(b)(7)(E)

(SBU) This exemption must be jointly determined by the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security. We have coordinated with the Department of Homeland Security and understand that its Secretary is prepared to make this determination for these individuals jointly with you. Because of the nature of travel bookings, this waiver must be issued today or tomorrow to allow such travel.

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

January 27, 2017

- - - - -

PROTECTING THE NATION FROM FOREIGN TERRORIST
ENTRY INTO THE UNITED STATES

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq., and section 301 of title 3, United States Code, and to protect the American people from terrorist attacks by foreign nationals admitted to the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. The visa-issuance process plays a crucial role in detecting individuals with terrorist ties and stopping them from entering the United States. Perhaps in no instance was that more apparent than the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, when State Department policy prevented consular officers from properly scrutinizing the visa applications of several of the 19 foreign nationals who went on to murder nearly 3,000 Americans. And while the visa-issuance process was reviewed and amended after the September 11 attacks to better detect would-be terrorists from receiving visas, these measures did not stop attacks by foreign nationals who were admitted to the United States.

Numerous foreign-born individuals have been convicted or implicated in terrorism-related crimes since September 11, 2001, including foreign nationals who entered the United States after receiving visitor, student, or employment visas, or who entered through the United States refugee resettlement program. Deteriorating conditions in certain countries due to war, strife, disaster, and civil unrest increase the likelihood that terrorists will use any means possible to enter the United States. The United States must be vigilant during the visa-issuance process to ensure that those approved for admission do not intend to harm Americans and that they have no ties to terrorism.

In order to protect Americans, the United States must ensure that those admitted to this country do not bear hostile attitudes toward it and its founding principles. The United States cannot, and should not, admit those who do not support the Constitution, or those who would place violent ideologies over American law. In addition, the United States should not admit those who engage in acts of bigotry or hatred (including "honor" killings, other forms of violence against women, or the persecution of those who practice religions different from their own) or those who would oppress Americans of any race, gender, or sexual orientation.

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the United States to protect its citizens from foreign nationals who intend to commit terrorist attacks in the United States; and to prevent the admission of foreign nationals who intend to exploit United States immigration laws for malevolent purposes.

Sec. 3. Suspension of Issuance of Visas and Other Immigration Benefits to Nationals of Countries of Particular Concern. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall immediately conduct a review to determine the information needed from any country to adjudicate any visa, admission, or other benefit under the INA (adjudications) in order to determine that the individual seeking the benefit is who the individual claims to be and is not a security or public-safety threat.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall submit to the President a report on the results of the review described in subsection (a) of this section, including the Secretary of Homeland Security's determination of the information needed for adjudications and a list of countries that do not provide adequate information, within 30 days of the date of this order. The Secretary of Homeland Security shall provide a copy of the report to the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence.

(c) To temporarily reduce investigative burdens on relevant agencies during the review period described in subsection (a) of this section, to ensure the proper review and maximum utilization of available resources for the screening of foreign nationals, and to ensure that adequate standards are established to prevent infiltration by foreign terrorists or criminals, pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the immigrant and nonimmigrant entry into the United States of aliens from countries referred to in section 217(a)(12) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1187(a)(12), would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and I hereby suspend entry into the United States, as immigrants and nonimmigrants, of such persons for 90 days from the date of this order (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas).

(d) Immediately upon receipt of the report described in subsection (b) of this section regarding the information needed for adjudications, the Secretary of State shall request all foreign governments that do not supply such information to start providing such information regarding their nationals within 60 days of notification.

(e) After the 60-day period described in subsection (d) of this section expires, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall submit to the President a list of countries recommended for inclusion on a Presidential proclamation that would prohibit the entry of foreign nationals (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas) from countries that do not provide the information requested pursuant to subsection (d) of this section until compliance occurs.

(f) At any point after submitting the list described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretary of State or the Secretary of Homeland Security may submit to the President the names of any additional countries recommended for similar treatment.

(g) Notwithstanding a suspension pursuant to subsection (c) of this section or pursuant to a Presidential proclamation described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may, on a case-by-case basis, and when in the national interest, issue visas or other immigration benefits to nationals of countries for which visas and benefits are otherwise blocked.

(h) The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall submit to the President a joint report on the progress in implementing this order within 30 days of the date of this order, a second report within 60 days of the date of this order, a third report within 90 days of the date of this order, and a fourth report within 120 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 4. Implementing Uniform Screening Standards for All Immigration Programs. (a) The Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall implement a program, as part of the adjudication process for immigration benefits, to identify individuals seeking to enter the United States on a fraudulent basis with the intent to cause harm, or who are at risk of causing harm subsequent to their admission. This program will include the development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews; a database of identity documents proffered by applicants to ensure that duplicate documents are not used by multiple applicants; amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; a mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be; a process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest; and a mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in conjunction with the Secretary of State, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of this directive within 60 days of the date of this order, a second report within 100 days of the date of this order, and a third report within 200 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 5. Realignment of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program for Fiscal Year 2017. (a) The Secretary of State shall suspend the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) for 120 days. During the 120-day period, the Secretary of State, in conjunction with the Secretary of Homeland Security and in consultation with the Director of National Intelligence, shall review the USRAP application and adjudication process to determine what additional procedures should be taken to ensure that those approved for refugee admission do not pose a threat to the security and welfare of the United States, and shall implement such additional procedures. Refugee applicants who are already in the USRAP process may be admitted upon the initiation and completion of these revised procedures. Upon the date that is 120 days after the date of this order, the Secretary of State shall resume USRAP admissions only for nationals of countries for which the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence have jointly determined that such additional procedures are adequate to ensure the security and welfare of the United States.

(b) Upon the resumption of USRAP admissions, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, is further directed to make changes, to the extent permitted by law, to prioritize refugee claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution, provided that the religion of the individual is a minority religion in the individual's country of nationality. Where necessary and appropriate, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall recommend legislation to the President that would assist with such prioritization.

(c) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of nationals of Syria as refugees is detrimental to the interests of the United States and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I have determined that sufficient changes have been made to the USRAP to ensure that admission of Syrian refugees is consistent with the national interest.

(d) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of more than 50,000 refugees in fiscal year 2017 would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I determine that additional admissions would be in the national interest.

(e) Notwithstanding the temporary suspension imposed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such individuals as refugees is in the national interest -- including when the person is a religious minority in his country of nationality facing religious persecution, when admitting the person would enable the United States to conform its conduct to a preexisting international agreement, or when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship -- and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

(f) The Secretary of State shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of the directive in subsection (b) of this section regarding prioritization of claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution within 100 days of the date of this order and shall submit a second report within 200 days of the date of this order.

(g) It is the policy of the executive branch that, to the extent permitted by law and as practicable, State and local jurisdictions be granted a role in the process of determining the placement or settlement in their jurisdictions of aliens eligible to be admitted to the United States as refugees. To that end, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall examine existing law to determine the extent to which, consistent with applicable law, State and local jurisdictions may have greater involvement in the process of determining the placement or resettlement of refugees in their jurisdictions, and shall devise a proposal to lawfully promote such involvement.

Sec. 6. Rescission of Exercise of Authority Relating to the Terrorism Grounds of Inadmissibility. The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, consider rescinding the exercises of authority in section 212 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182, relating to the terrorism grounds of inadmissibility, as well as any related implementing memoranda.

Sec. 7. Expedited Completion of the Biometric Entry-Exit Tracking System. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall expedite the completion and implementation of a biometric entry-exit tracking system for all travelers to the United States, as recommended by the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall submit to the President periodic reports on the progress of the directive contained in subsection (a) of this section. The initial report shall be submitted within 100 days of the date of this order, a second report shall be submitted within 200 days of the date of this order, and a third report shall be submitted within 365 days of the date of this order. Further, the Secretary shall submit a report every 180 days thereafter until the system is fully deployed and operational.

Sec. 8. Visa Interview Security. (a) The Secretary of State shall immediately suspend the Visa Interview Waiver Program and ensure compliance with section 222 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1222, which requires that all individuals seeking a nonimmigrant visa undergo an in-person interview, subject to specific statutory exceptions.

(b) To the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, the Secretary of State shall immediately expand the Consular Fellows Program, including by substantially increasing the number of Fellows, lengthening or making permanent the period of service, and making language training at the Foreign Service Institute available to Fellows for assignment to posts outside of their area of core linguistic ability, to ensure that non-immigrant visa-interview wait times are not unduly affected.

Sec. 9. Visa Validity Reciprocity. The Secretary of State shall review all nonimmigrant visa reciprocity agreements to ensure that they are, with respect to each visa classification, truly reciprocal insofar as practicable with respect to validity period and fees, as required by sections 221(c) and 281 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1201(c) and 1351, and other treatment. If a country does not treat United States nationals seeking nonimmigrant visas in a reciprocal manner, the Secretary of State shall adjust the visa validity period, fee schedule, or other treatment to match the treatment of United States nationals by the foreign country, to the extent practicable.

Sec. 10. Transparency and Data Collection. (a) To be more transparent with the American people, and to more effectively implement policies and practices that serve the national interest, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall, consistent with applicable law and national security, collect and make publicly available within 180 days, and every 180 days thereafter:

(i) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been charged with terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; convicted of terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; or removed from the United States based on terrorism-related activity, affiliation, or material support to a terrorism-related organization, or any other national security reasons since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later;

(ii) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been radicalized after entry into the United States and engaged in terrorism-related acts, or who have provided material support to terrorism-related organizations in countries that pose a threat to the United States, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iii) information regarding the number and types of acts of gender-based violence against women, including honor killings, in the United States by foreign nationals, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iv) any other information relevant to public safety and security as determined by the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, including information on the immigration status of foreign nationals charged with major offenses.

(b) The Secretary of State shall, within one year of the date of this order, provide a report on the estimated long-term costs of the USRAP at the Federal, State, and local levels.

Sec. 11. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

Right now we are referring all media inquiries to OPA HQ at CBPMediaRelations@cbp.dhs.gov and advising PALs to avoid speaking on the phone with reporters and DO NOT Promise a response.

Currently OPA is working on a statement that would need to be approved by DHS and the White House. Statement will be distributed to pending media inquiries and stakeholders. It will be also posted on cbp.gov. DHS-OPA is also working on FAQ document and talking points

Today 0830-0850, the Seattle Area Port participated on a brief local conference call with the Port of Seattle managers and international carrier station managers (e.g. Emirates, Delta and British Air). The call was a scheduled follow up call to the call that occurred last night.

The Area Port:

- provided an overview and status for the passengers (5 passengers) that arrived on Emirates flight 227 and the potential scope of the impact for the remainder of the day (13 passengers).
- provided a high level review of the CBP EO guidance (covered the 7 countries, the classes of admission and how the processing will occur) the expectation was to provide them an understanding of how EO and CBP processing could affect their customers and passengers.
- coordinated with the Port of Seattle and airlines on how to provide customer service information to family members (and friends) about their family member that may be affective by the executive order. The Port of Seattle has provided a private room in the main terminal if there is a need to speak to a family member face to face. The room was used once this morning to reassure a concern family member of a passenger that arrived on Emirates.

(b)(7)(E)

- reemphasized media inquiries are to be referred to CBP Public Affairs.

Questions asked:

1. How will LPRs be impacted- should they board a flight to travel and what about their families? Response: Referred to the CBP guidance in general terms on how LPRs will be processed.
2. Airlines wanted to know if CBP was going to issue a national statement to the airline industry? Response: Not sure if CBP or DHS will issue a statement but CBP will host a call with the airline stakeholders. During the call the stakeholder received the call information.
3. Airlines wanted to know if they should not board people from the 7 countries? Response: Did not give the airlines any guidance on what to tell their passengers, but did state CBP IAP is actively screening passengers at several airports overseas ion an effort to deny boarding at the point of departure.

The Seattle Area Port will continue to engage with our stakeholder to maintain a level of awareness.

Directors,

In light of the changes that were made with the new executive order and our current operational stance, please have your Port Directors at your larger locations engage directly, today, with local stakeholders to explain the changes and answer any questions as necessary. The focus for this should be at our larger airport operations.

As a side note headquarters Admissibility and Passenger Programs held a call last night with airline stakeholders at the national level and will also be doing so today.

Thank you,

ACTION MEMO FOR ACTING SECRETARY (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

FROM: PRM (b)(6), (b)(7)(C), Acting

SUBJECT: (SBU) Determination to exempt certain refugees from the President's Executive Order so they may enter the United States

Recommendation

(SBU) That you determine to admit the 872 refugees listed in Tab 1 scheduled to enter the United States through February 2 because their admission is in the national interest and would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

Approve (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) Disapprove _____

Background

(SBU) The Executive Order "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States" (EO) suspends certain aspects of the US Refugee Admissions Program for 120 days, including the entry of refugees. Section 5(e) of the EO provides that "the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such refugees is in the national interest – including ... when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship – and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States."

(SBU) PRM is seeking for you and DHS to determine jointly to admit 872 refugees who are already in transit through February 2. This group does not include nationals from the specific countries restricted in the Executive Order (Iran, Iraq, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, and Yemen). A list of these individuals is attached at Tab 1. Many of these individuals have already been moved from camps or other remote locations to U.S.-run refugee processing hubs in preparation for departure. Most have sold or relinquished their accommodations, household effects and other belongings; given up employment; and or discontinued schooling for their children. Many have had their residency permits rescinded by their countries of asylum once granted exit permits to imminently depart to the United States and others have been preparing for life in the United States to join U.S. family members who are already here. These individuals are mostly families with children and immediate cancellation of their travel would impose extreme hardship on people who have fled persecution and conflict in order to be resettled in the U.S. Without this humanitarian measure, some refugees could be stuck in limbo or even risk being returned to a country where they would face persecution. As such, each individual in this group is in transit and denying them admission would cause undue hardship.

(b)(7)(E)

(SBU) This exemption must be jointly determined by the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security. We have coordinated with the Department of Homeland Security and understand that its Secretary is prepared to make this determination for these individuals jointly with you. Because of the nature of travel bookings, this waiver must be issued today or tomorrow to allow such travel.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

PROTECTING THE NATION FROM FOREIGN TERRORIST
ENTRY INTO THE UNITED STATES

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq., and section 301 of title 3, United States Code, and to protect the American people from terrorist attacks by foreign nationals admitted to the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. The visa-issuance process plays a crucial role in detecting individuals with terrorist ties and stopping them from entering the United States. Perhaps in no instance was that more apparent than the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, when State Department policy prevented consular officers from properly scrutinizing the visa applications of several of the 19 foreign nationals who went on to murder nearly 3,000 Americans. And while the visa-issuance process was reviewed and amended after the September 11 attacks to better detect would-be terrorists from receiving visas, these measures did not stop attacks by foreign nationals who were admitted to the United States.

Numerous foreign-born individuals have been convicted or implicated in terrorism-related crimes since September 11, 2001, including foreign nationals who entered the United States after receiving visitor, student, or employment visas, or who entered through the United States refugee resettlement program. Deteriorating conditions in certain countries due to war, strife, disaster, and civil unrest increase the likelihood that terrorists will use any means possible to enter the United States. The United States must be vigilant during the visa-issuance process to ensure that those approved for admission do not intend to harm Americans and that they have no ties to terrorism.

In order to protect Americans, the United States must ensure that those admitted to this country do not bear hostile attitudes toward it and its founding principles. The United States cannot, and should not, admit those who do not support the Constitution, or those who would place violent ideologies over American law. In addition, the United States should not admit those who engage in acts of bigotry or hatred (including "honor" killings, other forms of violence against women, or the persecution of those who practice religions different from their own) or those who would oppress Americans of any race, gender, or sexual orientation.

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the United States to protect its citizens from foreign nationals who intend to commit terrorist attacks in the United States; and to prevent the admission of foreign nationals who intend to exploit United States immigration laws for malevolent purposes.

Sec. 3. Suspension of Issuance of Visas and Other Immigration Benefits to Nationals of Countries of Particular Concern. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall immediately conduct a review to determine the information needed from any country to adjudicate any visa, admission, or other benefit under the INA (adjudications) in order to determine that the individual seeking the benefit is who the individual claims to be and is not a security or public-safety threat.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall submit to the President a report on the results of the review described in subsection (a) of this section, including the Secretary of Homeland Security's determination of the information needed for adjudications and a list of countries that do not provide adequate information, within 30 days of the date of this order. The Secretary of Homeland Security shall provide a copy of the report to the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence.

(c) To temporarily reduce investigative burdens on relevant agencies during the review period described in subsection (a) of this section, to ensure the proper review and maximum utilization of available resources for the screening of foreign nationals, and to ensure that adequate standards are established to prevent infiltration by foreign terrorists or criminals, pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the immigrant and nonimmigrant entry into the United States of aliens from countries referred to in section 217(a)(12) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1187(a)(12), would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and I hereby suspend entry into the United States, as immigrants and nonimmigrants, of such persons for 90 days from the date of this order (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas).

(d) Immediately upon receipt of the report described in subsection (b) of this section regarding the information needed for adjudications, the Secretary of State shall request all foreign governments that do not supply such information to start providing such information regarding their nationals within 60 days of notification.

(e) After the 60-day period described in subsection (d) of this section expires, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, shall submit to the President a list of countries recommended for inclusion on a Presidential proclamation that would prohibit the entry of foreign nationals (excluding those foreign nationals traveling on diplomatic visas, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visas, C-2 visas for travel to the United Nations, and G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas) from countries that do not provide the information requested pursuant to subsection (d) of this section until compliance occurs.

(f) At any point after submitting the list described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretary of State or the Secretary of Homeland Security may submit to the President the names of any additional countries recommended for similar treatment.

(g) Notwithstanding a suspension pursuant to subsection (c) of this section or pursuant to a Presidential proclamation described in subsection (e) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may, on a case-by-case basis, and when in the national interest, issue visas or other immigration benefits to nationals of countries for which visas and benefits are otherwise blocked.

(h) The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall submit to the President a joint report on the progress in implementing this order within 30 days of the date of this order, a second report within 60 days of the date of this order, a third report within 90 days of the date of this order, and a fourth report within 120 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 4. Implementing Uniform Screening Standards for All Immigration Programs. (a) The Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall implement a program, as part of the adjudication process for immigration benefits, to identify individuals seeking to enter the United States on a fraudulent basis with the intent to cause harm, or who are at risk of causing harm subsequent to their admission. This program will include the development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews; a database of identity documents proffered by applicants to ensure that duplicate documents are not used by multiple applicants; amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; a mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be; a process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest; and a mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in conjunction with the Secretary of State, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of this directive within 60 days of the date of this order, a second report within 100 days of the date of this order, and a third report within 200 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 5. Realignment of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program for Fiscal Year 2017. (a) The Secretary of State shall suspend the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) for 120 days. During the 120-day period, the Secretary of State, in conjunction with the Secretary of Homeland Security and in consultation with the Director of National Intelligence, shall review the USRAP application and adjudication process to determine what additional procedures should be taken to ensure that those approved for refugee admission do not pose a threat to the security and welfare of the United States, and shall implement such additional procedures. Refugee applicants who are already in the USRAP process may be admitted upon the initiation and completion of these revised procedures. Upon the date that is 120 days after the date of this order, the Secretary of State shall resume USRAP admissions only for nationals of countries for which the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence have jointly determined that such additional procedures are adequate to ensure the security and welfare of the United States.

(b) Upon the resumption of USRAP admissions, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, is further directed to make changes, to the extent permitted by law, to prioritize refugee claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution, provided that the religion of the individual is a minority religion in the individual's country of nationality. Where necessary and appropriate, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall recommend legislation to the President that would assist with such prioritization.

(c) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of nationals of Syria as refugees is detrimental to the interests of the United States and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I have determined that sufficient changes have been made to the USRAP to ensure that admission of Syrian refugees is consistent with the national interest.

(d) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of more than 50,000 refugees in fiscal year 2017 would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I determine that additional admissions would be in the national interest.

(e) Notwithstanding the temporary suspension imposed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such individuals as refugees is in the national interest -- including when the person is a religious minority in his country of nationality facing religious persecution, when admitting the person would enable the United States to conform its conduct to a preexisting international agreement, or when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship -- and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

(f) The Secretary of State shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of the directive in subsection (b) of this section regarding prioritization of claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution within 100 days of the date of this order and shall submit a second report within 200 days of the date of this order.

(g) It is the policy of the executive branch that, to the extent permitted by law and as practicable, State and local jurisdictions be granted a role in the process of determining the placement or settlement in their jurisdictions of aliens eligible to be admitted to the United States as refugees. To that end, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall examine existing law to determine the extent to which, consistent with applicable law, State and local jurisdictions may have greater involvement in the process of determining the placement or resettlement of refugees in their jurisdictions, and shall devise a proposal to lawfully promote such involvement.

Sec. 6. Rescission of Exercise of Authority Relating to the Terrorism Grounds of Inadmissibility. The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, consider rescinding the exercises of authority in section 212 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182, relating to the terrorism grounds of inadmissibility, as well as any related implementing memoranda.

Sec. 7. Expedited Completion of the Biometric Entry-Exit Tracking System. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall expedite the completion and implementation of a biometric entry-exit tracking system for all travelers to the United States, as recommended by the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall submit to the President periodic reports on the progress of the directive contained in subsection (a) of this section. The initial report shall be submitted within 100 days of the date of this order, a second report shall be submitted within 200 days of the date of this order, and a third report shall be submitted within 365 days of the date of this order. Further, the Secretary shall submit a report every 180 days thereafter until the system is fully deployed and operational.

Sec. 8. Visa Interview Security. (a) The Secretary of State shall immediately suspend the Visa Interview Waiver Program and ensure compliance with section 222 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1222, which requires that all individuals seeking a nonimmigrant visa undergo an in-person interview, subject to specific statutory exceptions.

(b) To the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, the Secretary of State shall immediately expand the Consular Fellows Program, including by substantially increasing the number of Fellows, lengthening or making permanent the period of service, and making language training at the Foreign Service Institute available to Fellows for assignment to posts outside of their area of core linguistic ability, to ensure that non-immigrant visa-interview wait times are not unduly affected.

Sec. 9. Visa Validity Reciprocity. The Secretary of State shall review all nonimmigrant visa reciprocity agreements to ensure that they are, with respect to each visa classification, truly reciprocal insofar as practicable with respect to validity period and fees, as required by sections 221(c) and 281 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1201(c) and 1351, and other treatment. If a country does not treat United States nationals seeking nonimmigrant visas in a reciprocal manner, the Secretary of State shall adjust the visa validity period, fee schedule, or other treatment to match the treatment of United States nationals by the foreign country, to the extent practicable.

Sec. 10. Transparency and Data Collection. (a) To be more transparent with the American people, and to more effectively implement policies and practices that serve the national interest, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall, consistent with applicable law and national security, collect and make publicly available within 180 days, and every 180 days thereafter:

(i) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been charged with terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; convicted of terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; or removed from the United States based on terrorism-related activity, affiliation, or material support to a terrorism-related organization, or any other national security reasons since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later;

(ii) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been radicalized after entry into the United States and engaged in terrorism-related acts, or who have provided material support to terrorism-related organizations in countries that pose a threat to the United States, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iii) information regarding the number and types of acts of gender-based violence against women, including honor killings, in the United States by foreign nationals, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iv) any other information relevant to public safety and security as determined by the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, including information on the immigration status of foreign nationals charged with major offenses.

(b) The Secretary of State shall, within one year of the date of this order, provide a report on the estimated long-term costs of the USRAP at the Federal, State, and local levels.

Sec. 11. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

This program will include the development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews; a database of identity documents proffered by applicants to ensure that duplicate documents are not used by multiple applicants; amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; a mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be; a process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest; and a mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in conjunction with the Secretary of State, the Director of National Intelligence, and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of this directive within 60 days of the date of this order, a second report within 100 days of the date of this order, and a third report within 200 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 5. Realignment of the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program for Fiscal Year 2017. (a) The Secretary of State shall suspend the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) for 120 days. During the 120-day period, the Secretary of State, in conjunction with the Secretary of Homeland Security and in consultation with the Director of National Intelligence, shall review the USRAP application and adjudication process to determine what additional procedures should be taken to ensure that those approved for refugee admission do not pose a threat to the security and welfare of the United States, and shall implement such additional procedures. Refugee applicants who are already in the USRAP process may be admitted upon the initiation and completion of these revised procedures. Upon the date that is 120 days after the date of this order, the Secretary of State shall resume USRAP admissions only for nationals of countries for which the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Director of National Intelligence have jointly determined that such additional procedures are adequate to ensure the security and welfare of the United States.

(b) Upon the resumption of USRAP admissions, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, is further directed to make changes, to the extent permitted by law, to prioritize refugee claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution, provided that the religion of the individual is a minority religion in the individual's country of nationality. Where necessary and appropriate, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall recommend legislation to the President that would assist with such prioritization.

(c) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of nationals of Syria as refugees is detrimental to the interests of the United States and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I have determined that sufficient changes have been made to the USRAP to ensure that admission of Syrian refugees is consistent with the national interest.

(d) Pursuant to section 212(f) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182(f), I hereby proclaim that the entry of more than 50,000 refugees in fiscal year 2017 would be detrimental to the interests of the United States, and thus suspend any such entry until such time as I determine that additional admissions would be in the national interest.

(e) Notwithstanding the temporary suspension imposed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretaries of State and Homeland Security may jointly determine to admit individuals to the United States as refugees on a case-by-case basis, in their discretion, but only so long as they determine that the admission of such individuals as refugees is in the national interest -- including when the person is a religious minority in his country of nationality facing religious persecution, when admitting the person would enable the United States to conform its conduct to a preexisting international agreement, or when the person is already in transit and denying admission would cause undue hardship -- and it would not pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.

(f) The Secretary of State shall submit to the President an initial report on the progress of the directive in subsection (b) of this section regarding prioritization of claims made by individuals on the basis of religious-based persecution within 100 days of the date of this order and shall submit a second report within 200 days of the date of this order.

(g) It is the policy of the executive branch that, to the extent permitted by law and as practicable, State and local jurisdictions be granted a role in the process of determining the placement or settlement in their jurisdictions of aliens eligible to be admitted to the United States as refugees. To that end, the Secretary of Homeland Security shall examine existing law to determine the extent to which, consistent with applicable law, State and local jurisdictions may have greater involvement in the process of determining the placement or resettlement of refugees in their jurisdictions, and shall devise a proposal to lawfully promote such involvement.

Sec. 6. Rescission of Exercise of Authority Relating to the Terrorism Grounds of Inadmissibility. The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, consider rescinding the exercises of authority in section 212 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1182, relating to the terrorism grounds of inadmissibility, as well as any related implementing memoranda.

Sec. 7. Expedited Completion of the Biometric Entry-Exit Tracking System. (a) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall expedite the completion and implementation of a biometric entry-exit tracking system for all travelers to the United States, as recommended by the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Homeland Security shall submit to the President periodic reports on the progress of the directive contained in subsection (a) of this section. The initial report shall be submitted within 100 days of the date of this order, a second report shall be submitted within 200 days of the date of this order, and a third report shall be submitted within 365 days of the date of this order. Further, the Secretary shall submit a report every 180 days thereafter until the system is fully deployed and operational.

Sec. 8. Visa Interview Security. (a) The Secretary of State shall immediately suspend the Visa Interview Waiver Program and ensure compliance with section 222 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1222, which requires that all individuals seeking a nonimmigrant visa undergo an in-person interview, subject to specific statutory exceptions.

(b) To the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, the Secretary of State shall immediately expand the Consular Fellows Program, including by substantially increasing the number of Fellows, lengthening or making permanent the period of service, and making language training at the Foreign Service Institute available to Fellows for assignment to posts outside of their area of core linguistic ability, to ensure that non-immigrant visa-interview wait times are not unduly affected.

Sec. 9. Visa Validity Reciprocity. The Secretary of State shall review all nonimmigrant visa reciprocity agreements to ensure that they are, with respect to each visa classification, truly reciprocal insofar as practicable with respect to validity period and fees, as required by sections 221(c) and 281 of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1201(c) and 1351, and other treatment. If a country does not treat United States nationals seeking nonimmigrant visas in a reciprocal manner, the Secretary of State shall adjust the visa validity period, fee schedule, or other treatment to match the treatment of United States nationals by the foreign country, to the extent practicable.

Sec. 10. Transparency and Data Collection. (a) To be more transparent with the American people, and to more effectively implement policies and practices that serve the national interest, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall, consistent with applicable law and national security, collect and make publicly available within 180 days, and every 180 days thereafter:

(i) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been charged with terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; convicted of terrorism-related offenses while in the United States; or removed from the United States based on terrorism-related activity, affiliation, or material support to a terrorism-related organization, or any other national security reasons since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later;

(ii) information regarding the number of foreign nationals in the United States who have been radicalized after entry into the United States and engaged in terrorism-related acts, or who have provided material support to terrorism-related organizations in countries that pose a threat to the United States, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iii) information regarding the number and types of acts of gender-based violence against women, including honor killings, in the United States by foreign nationals, since the date of this order or the last reporting period, whichever is later; and

(iv) any other information relevant to public safety and security as determined by the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General, including information on the immigration status of foreign nationals charged with major offenses.

(b) The Secretary of State shall, within one year of the date of this order, provide a report on the estimated long-term costs of the USRAP at the Federal, State, and local levels.

Sec. 11. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

MEMORANDUM TO THE ACTING SECRETARY OF STATE, THE ACTING ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND THE SECRETARY OF HOMELAND SECURITY

FROM: Donald F. McGahn II – Counsel to the President

SUBJECT: Authoritative Guidance on Executive Order Entitled “Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States” (Jan. 27, 2017)

Section 3(c) of the Executive Order entitled “Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States” (Jan. 27, 2017) suspends for 90 days the entry into the United States of certain aliens from countries referred to in section 217(a)(12) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1187(a)(12). Section 3(e) of the order directs the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of State, to submit to the President a list of countries recommended for inclusion on a Presidential proclamation that would prohibit the entry of certain foreign nationals from countries that do not provide information needed to adjudicate visas, admissions, or other benefits under the INA.

I understand that there has been reasonable uncertainty about whether those provisions apply to lawful permanent residents of the United States. Accordingly, to remove any confusion, I now clarify that Sections 3(c) and 3(e) do not apply to such individuals. Please immediately convey this interpretive guidance to all individuals responsible for the administration and implementation of the Executive Order.

Field Liaison/Enforcement Programs-

I received the below message from the Area Port Director Seattle, the Washington State Governors aide reached out to him for assistance on a Somalian who immigrant visa was revoked due to the EO and they need assistance from the DOS to get a transportation letter for he can board the flight. CBP Sea-Tac retained the immigrant visa packet.

Can Field Liaison reach out to DOS for assistance to allow travel back to Seattle and reactivate his immigrant visa. If the DOS has any questions they can reach out to Assistant Port Director (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) (copied on this message). The port is attempting to expedite travelers return back to Seattle

Thank you

I received the below email from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) of Governor Jay Inslee staff. He outlined some specific actions that they expect CBP Seattle to execute. I responded to his email by informing him that Seattle CBP is willing to assist as much as possible to process the (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) without any unnecessary delays upon his arrival, however, our local ability to contact the State Department and airline overseas (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is out of our immediate abilities. We will be elevating this situation up through our chain of command to Washington, DC, and possibly a CBP office at the Headquarters level could facilitate what you have outlined with the State Department- the reissuance of the visa and/or provide a travel letter for (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) since he does not have a passport and visa.

We sent bullets to your attention, and is it possible for you to ask or point out that HQ may need to assist in coordinating some of these action with the Department of State.

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and all - I am including (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from CPB intergovernmental affairs, and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from the Port of Seattle on this chain.

It appears that CBP is prepared to allow (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to enter the United States upon his entry at Sea-Tac airport, under the terms of his previously-issued visa. Furthermore, the CPB team is helpfully prepared to work with the airline carrier to ensure they are aware of (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) ability to enter the U.S., so that he is allowed to board his flight.

However, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) physical immigrant visa packet and visa were held in Seattle when he was sent back to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on Saturday. My understanding is that he is not in possession of a passport, but was relying on these documents for entry and for travel. Furthermore, our understand is that his visa remains listed as "cancelled" in the State Department system. And, because of these things, and given the fact that he has to travel from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) before continuing on a flight to Seattle, there is a concern that he will not be allowed to board his flight(s), due to the airline or potentially in an issue with European customs in intra-Euro travel.

Can the CPB team assist (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client in getting in touch with the State Department to 1) revise his "cancelled" visa status, and 2) obtain a written document that will clearly indicate that his ability to travel from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to Seattle? Again, we appreciate your willingness to communicate directly with the carrier, as well. That will also be important, but (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client are worried it will be insufficient.

Thank you for your assistance and attention in this matter.

Area Port of Seattle
Situational Awareness - Assistance Provided to Immigrant Affected by EO (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) February 4, 2017

Affected Port: Seattle-Tacoma International Airport

Date of Report: February 4, 2017

Executive Summary:

On January 28, 2017 a male citizen of Somalia, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) arrived aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C). (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) The passenger applied for admission as a first time immigrant. He was referred to hard secondary because he met the criteria for January 27th Presidential Executive Order. He was found inadmissible based on the Executive Order and was allowed to withdraw his application for admission. His immigrant visa package was retained by CBP and his Immigrant Visa was cancelled. He was returned to London later that day on (b)(6), (b)(7)(C).

On February 3, 2017, in response to a District Court ruling enjoining the Executive Order, the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Edward Ramotowski) for the Department of State reversed the provisional revocation of all visa provisionally revoked on January 27, 2017.

On February 4, 2017, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) immigration attorney, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) seeking assistance in getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S. She indicated that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was currently in (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and wished to return to the U.S. as an immigrant, however he is not in possession of a passport or an immigrant visa that would allow him to board a flight to the U.S. In an attempt to facilitate his return, CBP Seattle attempted to contact IAP (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to request assistance with boarding (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on a Seattle bound flight. However, due to time difference, no officers were on duty. It was later determined that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was actually in (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and that he would be boarding a flight there. CBP Seattle informed (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) that Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he could get to Seattle, however he would need to contact the Department of State (DOS) to obtain a boarding letter and visa. (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that it wasn't a CBP issue and that she would be reaching out to Governor Inslee's office to get assistance in resolving the matter with the DOS so (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) could board the plane.

Details of the Incident / Date and Time:

- On January 27, 2014, Presidential Executive Order "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States" enacted.
- On January 28, 2017 at 1035 hours, Somalia citizen, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) arrives aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and applies for admission as a new immigrant.
- (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is denied admission and allowed to withdraw his application for admission.
- At 1345 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is returned to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)
- On February 3, 2017 at approximately 1700 hours, a District Court rules issues a temporary restraining order suspending the Presidential Executive Order.
- * On February 4, 2017, at 1150 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) by email, seeking assistance with getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S.
- * At 1210 hours, APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to help coordinate (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) return.
- * At 1227 hours, multiple attempts to contact IAP London were made, but were unsuccessful.
- * (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was informed that CBP Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he arrive in Seattle but she would need to contact the DOS about obtaining a boarding letter and/or a visa that would allow him to board a plane to the U.S.
- * (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that CBP could not help her with this and that she would seek assistance from Governor Inslee's office to help resolve the matter with DOS.

I'm going to have (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on the call too, she was on the last one with the CG. Information we are getting now is the vessel is arriving in Vancouver BC on the 4th. Vessel may be low on fuel, the plan for the vessel is to attempt to take bunkers (ship's fuel) on the 4th unless the fuel is not available. If the fuel is not available they plan to drift until it's ready. Specifically they do not want to be at anchor for more than 24 hours to avoid having to make U.S. entry. If they have to take on fuel it will be from a fuel supplier's barge then move on the Vancouver, BC. By the way the captain is (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and doesn't have a visa. We reached out to Ryan, just in case to see how we would proceed if the vessel made entry.

"Subject: City of Seattle v. DOJ

On Friday, 02/03 at 14:00 there will be a case heard in Judge (b)(6) courtroom about the immigration policy signed by the President. The City of Seattle is suing the government over the executive order banning immigrants from certain countries for a period of time.

According to the U.S. Attorney's Office they will be setting up an over-flow courtroom to handle the numerous people expected. This will also include numerous media outlets that will be reporting on the case.

With the on-going protests taking place around the country and in Seattle it can be assumed that numerous protestors will show up outside the courthouse.

Field Liaison/Enforcement Programs-

I received the below message from the Area Port Director Seattle, the Washington State Governors aide reached out to him for assistance on a Somalian who immigrant visa was revoked due to the EO and they need assistance from the DOS to get a transportation letter for he can board the flight. CBP Sea-Tac retained the immigrant visa packet.

Can Field Liaison reach out to DOS for assistance to allow travel back to Seattle and reactivate his immigrant visa. If the DOS has any questions they can reach out to Assistant Port Director (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) (copied on this message). The port is attempting to expedite travelers return back to Seattle

Thank you

I received the below email from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) of Governor Jay Inslee staff. He outlined some specific actions that they expect CBP Seattle to execute. I responded to his email by informing him that Seattle CBP is willing to assist as much as possible to process the (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) without any unnecessary delays upon his arrival, however, our local ability to contact the State Department and airline overseas (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is out of our immediate abilities. We will be elevating this situation up through our chain of command to Washington, DC, and possibly a CBP office at the Headquarters level could facilitate what you have outlined with the State Department- the reissuance of the visa and/or provide a travel letter for Mr. (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) since he does not have a passport and visa.

We sent bullets to your attention, and is it possible for you to ask or point out that HQ may need to assist in coordinating some of these action with the Department of State.

Thank you,

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and all - I am including (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from CPB intergovernmental affairs, and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from the Port of Seattle on this chain.

It appears that CBP is prepared to allow (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to enter the United States upon his entry at Sea-Tac airport, under the terms of his previously-issued visa. Furthermore, the CPB team is helpfully prepared to work with the airline carrier to ensure they are aware of (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) ability to enter the U.S., so that he is allowed to board his flight.

However, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) physical immigrant visa packet and visa were held in Seattle when he was sent back to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on Saturday. My understanding is that he is not in possession of a passport, but was relying on these documents for entry and for travel. Furthermore, our understand is that his visa remains listed as "cancelled" in the State Department system. And, because of these things, and given the fact that he has to travel from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) before continuing on a flight to Seattle, there is a concern that he will not be allowed to board his flight(s), due to the airline or potentially in an issue with European customs in intra-Euro travel.

Can the CPB team assist (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client in getting in touch with the State Department to 1) revise his "cancelled" visa status, and 2) obtain a written document that will clearly indicate that his ability to travel from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to Seattle? Again, we appreciate your willingness to communicate directly with the carrier, as well. That will also be important, but (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client are worried it will be insufficient.

Thank you for your assistance and attention in this matter.

Area Port of Seattle
 Situational Awareness - Assistance Provided to Immigrant Affected by EO (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) February 4, 2017

Affected Port: Seattle-Tacoma International Airport

Date of Report: February 4, 2017

Executive Summary:

On January 28, 2017 a male citizen of Somalia (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) arrived aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C). The passenger applied for admission as a first time immigrant. He was referred to hard secondary because he met the criteria for January 27th Presidential Executive Order. He was found inadmissible based on the Executive Order and was allowed to withdraw his application for admission. His immigrant visa package was retained by CBP and his Immigrant Visa was cancelled. He was returned to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C).

On February 3, 2017, in response to a District Court ruling enjoining the Executive Order, the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Edward Ramotowski) for the Department of State reversed the provisional revocation of all visa provisionally revoked on January 27, 2017.

On February 4, 2017, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) immigration attorney (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) seeking assistance in getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S. She indicated that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was currently in London and wished to return to the U.S. as an immigrant, however he is not in possession of a passport or an immigrant visa that would allow him to board a flight to the U.S. In an attempt to facilitate his return, CBP Seattle attempted to contact IAP (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to request assistance with boarding (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on a Seattle bound flight. However, due to time difference, no officers were on duty. It was later determined that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was actually in (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and that he would be boarding a flight there. CBP Seattle informed (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) that Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he could get to Seattle, however he would need to contact the Department of State (DOS) to obtain a boarding letter and visa. (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that it wasn't a CBP issue and that she would be reaching out to Governor Inslee's office to get assistance in resolving the matter with the DOS so (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) could board the plane.

Details of the Incident / Date and Time:

· On January 27, 2014, Presidential Executive Order "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States" enacted.

· On January 28, 2017 at 1035 hours, Somalia citizen (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) arrives aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and applies for admission as a new immigrant.

· (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is denied admission and allowed to withdraw his application for admission.

· At 1345 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is returned to London aboard BA# 52.

· On February 3, 2017 at approximately 1700 hours, a District Court rules issues a temporary restraining order suspending the Presidential Executive Order.

* On February 4, 2017, at 1150 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) by email, seeking assistance with getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S.

* At 1210 hours, APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to help coordinate (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) return.

* At 1227 hours, multiple attempts to contact IAP (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) were made, but were unsuccessful.

* (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was informed that CBP Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he arrive in Seattle but she would need to contact the DOS about obtaining a boarding letter and/or a visa that would allow him to board a plane to the U.S.

* (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that CBP could not help her with this and that she would seek assistance from Governor Inslee's office to help resolve the matter with DOS.

Subject: FW: SA - 4 February 2017 - Assistance Provided to Immigrant Affected by EO (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

Field Liaison/Enforcement Programs-

I received the below message from the Area Port Director Seattle, the Washington State Governors aide reached out to him for assistance on a Somalian who immigrant visa was revoked due to the EO and they need assistance from the DOS to get a transportation letter for he can board the flight. CBP Sea-Tac retained the immigrant visa packet.

Can Field Liaison reach out to DOS for assistance to allow travel back to Seattle and reactivate his immigrant visa. If the DOS has any questions they can reach out to Assistant Port Director (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) copied on this message). The port is attempting to expedite travelers return back to Seattle

Thank you

I received the below email from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) of Governor Jay Inslee staff. He outlined some specific actions that they expect CBP

Seattle to execute. I responded to his email by informing him that Seattle CBP is willing to assist as much as possible to process the (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) without any unnecessary delays upon his arrival, however, our local ability to contact the State Department and airline overseas (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is out of our immediate abilities. We will be elevating this situation up through our chain of command to Washington, DC, and possibly a CBP office at the Headquarters level could facilitate what you have outlined with the State Department- the reissuance of the visa and/or provide a travel letter for (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) since he does not have a passport and visa.

We sent bullets to your attention, and is it possible for you to ask or point out that HQ may need to assist in coordinating some of these action with the Department of State.

Thank you,

(b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and all - I am including (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from CPB intergovernmental affairs, and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) from the Port of Seattle on this chain.

It appears that CBP is prepared to allow (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to enter the United States upon his entry at Sea-Tac airport, under the terms of his previously-issued visa. Furthermore, the CPB team is helpfully prepared to work with the airline carrier to ensure they are aware of (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) ability to enter the U.S., so that he is allowed to board his flight.

However, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) physical immigrant visa packet and visa were held in Seattle when he was sent back to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on Saturday. My understanding is that he is not in possession of a passport, but was relying on these documents for entry and for travel. Furthermore, our understand is that his visa remains listed as "cancelled" in the State Department system. And, because of these things, and given the fact that he has to travel from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) before continuing on a flight to Seattle, there is a concern that he will not be allowed to board his flight(s), due to the airline or potentially in an issue with European customs in intra-Euro travel.

Can the CPB team assist (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client in getting in touch with the State Department to 1) revise his "cancelled" visa status, and 2) obtain a written document that will clearly indicate that his ability to travel from (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to Seattle? Again, we appreciate your willingness to communicate directly with the carrier, as well. That will also be important, but (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and her client are worried it will be insufficient.

Thank you for your assistance and attention in this matter.

Situational Awareness - Assistance Provided to Immigrant Affected by EO (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) February 4, 2017

Affected Port: Seattle-Tacoma International Airport

Date of Report: February 4, 2017

Executive Summary:

On January 28, 2017 a male citizen of Somalia, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) arrived aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C). The passenger applied for admission as a first time immigrant. He was referred to hard secondary because he met the criteria for January 27th Presidential Executive Order. He was found inadmissible based on the Executive Order and was allowed to withdraw his application for admission. His immigrant visa package was retained by CBP and his Immigrant Visa was cancelled. He was returned to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) later that day on (b)(6), (b)(7)(C).

On February 3, 2017, in response to a District Court ruling enjoining the Executive Order, the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Edward Ramotowski) for the Department of State reversed the provisional revocation of all visa provisionally revoked on January 27, 2017.

On February 4, 2017, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) immigration attorney, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) seeking assistance in getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S. She indicated that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was currently in London and wished to return to the U.S. as an immigrant, however he is not in possession of a passport or an immigrant visa that would allow him to board a flight to the U.S. In an attempt to facilitate his return, CBP Seattle attempted to contact IAP (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to request assistance with boarding (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) on a Seattle bound flight. However, due to time difference, no officers were on duty. It was later determined that (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was actually in (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and that he would be boarding a flight there. CBP Seattle informed (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) that Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he could get to Seattle, however he would need to contact the Department of State (DOS) to obtain a boarding letter and visa. (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that it wasn't a CBP issue and that she would be reaching out to Governor Inslee's office to get assistance in resolving the matter with the DOS so (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) could board the plane.

Details of the Incident / Date and Time:

· On January 27, 2014, Presidential Executive Order "Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States" enacted.

· On January 28, 2017 at 1035 hours, Somalia citizen, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) arrives aboard (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and applies for admission as a new immigrant.

· (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is denied admission and allowed to withdraw his application for admission.

· At 1345 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) is returned to (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

· On February 3, 2017 at approximately 1700 hours, a District Court rules issues a temporary restraining order suspending the Presidential Executive Order.

* On February 4, 2017, at 1150 hours, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) by email, seeking assistance with getting (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) back to the U.S.

* At 1210 hours, APD (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) contacted (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) to help coordinate (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) return.

- * At 1227 hours, multiple attempts to contact IAP (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) were made, but were unsuccessful.
- * (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) was informed that CBP Seattle would process (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) if he arrive in Seattle but she would need to contact the DOS about obtaining a boarding letter and/or a visa that would allow him to board a plane to the U.S.
- * (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) indicated that she understood that CBP could not help her with this and that she would seek assistance from Governor Inslee's office to help resolve the matter with DOS.
