Good Morning Dave,

I wanted to share this recent announcement from the Department of Labor about their plans to inject funding for fraud prevention measures into the UI system. We are very excited to be one of the three named vendors and are looking forward to our continued partnership. Below is a link to the press release and a fact sheet for your reference.

Please let me know if you have any immediate questions, or if there's anything additional I can provide.

Best,
Dan
