Lori and Dave,

First and foremost, congratulations on going live today! We are very excited to start this new chapter between OED and ID.me.

We greatly appreciated you and your team taking the time to meet with our security team today. I would like to schedule a recurring monthly meeting with OED and the ID.me Security folks for the second Monday of every month. If that works for you all, our next meeting would be Monday April 12th. I will let you schedule the meeting so you can deconflict the schedules within OED: "Monthly OED <> ID.me Security Meeting." We will make sure we have the right people from ID.me to support.

Mere speaks of it often, but accessibility is at the forefront of our minds. When you get a chance, please let me know your top five language requests besides English (Spanish, Russian, Vietnamese, and two more). I will get our tracker updated with your inputs.

Finally, is there any information in particular that you all are looking for on [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I recommend we set up a 30 minute overview meeting between ID.me and the OED Leadership Team to discuss [REDACTED] [REDACTED] If you would like to move forward with that meeting, I will send you some times that work for us next week.

Congratulations again,
Dan
