

(a) No reservation of jurisdiction in the final judgment - motion for deficiency must be made within ten (10) days of issuance of title. Frumkes, 173 at 740.

(b) The lender can file a separate action for post-foreclosure deficiency. Section 702.06, Fla. Stat (2010). In a separate action, the defendant has the right to demand a trial by jury. Hobbs v. Florida First Nat'l Bank of Jacksonville, 480 So. 2d 153, 156 (Fla. 1st DCA 1985); Bradberry v. Atlantic Bank of St. Augustine, 336 So. 2d 1248, 1250 (Fla. 1st DCA 1976), (no jury trial right within foreclosure action). Section 55.01(2), Fla. Stat. (2010) mandates that final judgments in a separate action for deficiency contain the address and social security number of the judgment debtor, if known. This requirement is not imposed in a mortgage foreclosure action, in which an in rem judgment is sought.

7. Statute of limitations –

(a) A deficiency judgment or decree is barred when an action on the debt secured by the mortgage is barred. Barnes v. Escambia County Employees Credit Union, 488 So. 2d 879, 880 (Fla. 1st DCA 1986), abrogated on other grounds.

(b) Section 95.11, Fla. Stat. (2010) imposes a five-year statute of limitations for a foreclosure deficiency judgment.

(c) "A cause of action for deficiency does not accrue, and thus the statute of limitations does not begin to run, until the final judgment of foreclosure and subsequent foreclosure sale." Chrestensen, 906 So. 2d at 345.

8. There are statutory limitations imposed on a deficiency judgment when a purchase money mortgage is being foreclosed. Section 702.06, Fla. Stat. (2010) includes language that impairs the entitlement to a deficiency judgment with respect to a purchase money mortgage, when the mortgagee becomes the purchaser at foreclosure sale. Specifically, this statutory limitation provides: "the complainant shall also have the right to sue at common law to recover such deficiency, provided no suit at law to recover such deficiency shall be maintained against the original mortgagor in cases where the mortgage is for the purchase price of the property involved and where the original mortgagee becomes the purchaser thereof at foreclosure sale and also is granted a deficiency decree against the original mortgagor." Essentially, if the lender purchases the subject property he has not incurred the damages and in fact may recoup or profit at a later sale. See also, United Postal Savings Ass'n v. Nagelbush, 553 So. 2d 189(Fla. 3d DCA 1989), Taylor v. Prine, 132 So. 2d 464, 465 (Fla. 1931).

(a) One Florida court ruled in a case where the purchase money mortgagee was also the purchaser that the "all important distinction" in the case was that "the purchaser at the foreclosure sale was not the mortgagee but ... an utter stranger to the parties," a third party purchaser, warranting reversal of the trial court's denial of deficiency judgment. Lloyd v. Cannon, 399 So. 2d 1095, 1096 (Fla. 1st DCA 1981).

Bankruptcy

1. The automatic stay provisions of 11 U. S. C. §362 enjoins proceedings against the debtor and against property of the bankruptcy estate.

(a) To apply, the subject real property must be listed in the bankruptcy schedules as part of the estate. 11 U. S. C. § 541.

2. Foreclosure cannot proceed until the automatic stay is lifted or terminated. If property ceases to be property of the bankruptcy estate, the stay is terminated.

(a) The automatic stay in a second case filed within one year of dismissal of a prior Chapter 7, 11 or 13 automatically terminates 30 days after the second filing, unless good faith is demonstrated. 11 U. S. C. § 362(c)(3).

(b) The third filing within one year of dismissal of the second bankruptcy case, lacks entitlement to the automatic stay and any party in interest may request an order confirming the inapplicability of the automatic stay.

(c) Multiple bankruptcy filings where the bankruptcy court has determined that the debtor has attempted to delay, hinder or defraud a creditor may result in the imposition of an order for relief from stay in subsequent cases over a two year period. 11 U. S. C. §362(d)(4).

3. Debtor's discharge in bankruptcy only protects the subject property to the extent that it is part of the bankruptcy estate.

4. Foreclosure cannot proceed until relief from automatic stay is obtained or otherwise terminated, or upon dismissal of the bankruptcy case.

Florida's Expedited Foreclosure Statute

1. Enacted by § 702.10, Fla. Stat. (2010).
2. Upon filing of verified complaint, plaintiff moves for immediate review of foreclosure by an order to show cause. (These complaints are easily distinguishable from the usual foreclosure by the order to show cause).
 - (a) The failure to file defenses or to appear at the show cause hearing "presumptively constitutes conduct that clearly shows that the defendant has relinquished the right to be heard." Id.
3. Not the standard practice among foreclosure practitioners, due to limitations:
 - (a) Statute does not foreclose junior liens;
 - (b) Procedures differ as to residential and commercial properties; and
 - (c) Statute only provides for entry of an in rem judgment; a judgment on the note or a deficiency judgment cannot be entered under the show cause procedure.

Common Procedural Errors

1. Incorrect legal description contained in the:
 - (a) Original mortgage – requires a count for reformation. An error in the legal description of the deed requires the joinder of the original parties as necessary parties to the reformation proceedings. Chanrai Inv., Inc., v. Clement, 566 So. 2d 838, 840 (Fla. 5th DCA 1990).
 - (b) Complaint and lis pendens – requires amendment.
 - (c) Judgment – Rule 1.540 (a), Fla. R. Civ. P. (2010) governs. For example, an incorrect judgment amount which omitted the undisputed payment of real estate taxes could be amended. LPP Mortgage Ltd. v. Bank of America, 826 So. 2d 462, 463 (Fla. 3d DCA 2002).
 - (d) Notice of Sale – requires vacating the sale and subsequent resale of property. Hyte Development Corp. v. General Electric Credit Corp., 356 So. 2d 1254 (Fla. 3d DCA 1978).

(e) Certificate of title – a “genuine” scrivener’s error in the certificate of title can be amended. However, there is no statutory basis for the court to direct the clerk to amend the certificate of title based on post judgment transfers of title, faulty assignments of bid or errors in vesting title instructions.

(1) An error in the certificate of title which originates in the mortgage and is repeated in the deed and notice of sale requires the cancellation of the certificate of title and setting aside of the final judgment. Lucas v. Barnett Bank of Lee County, 705 So. 2d 115 (Fla. 2d DCA 1998). (For example, plaintiff’s omission of a mobile home and its vehicle identification number (VIN) included in the mortgage legal description, but overlooked throughout the pleadings, judgment and notice of sale, cannot be amended in the certificate of title.) Due process issues concerning the mobile home require the vacating of the sale and judgment.

Mortgage Workout Options

1. Reinstatement: Repayment of the total amount in default or payments behind and restoration to current status on the note and mortgage.
2. Forbearance: The temporary reduction or suspension of mortgage payments.
3. Repayment Plan: Agreement between the parties whereby the homeowner repays the regularly scheduled monthly payments, plus an additional amount over time to reduce arrears.
4. Loan Modification: Agreement between the parties whereby one or more of the mortgage terms are permanently changed.
5. Short Sale: Sale of real property for less than the total amount owed on the note and mortgage.
 - (a) If the lender agrees to the short sale, the remaining portion of the mortgage debt, (the difference between the sale price of the property and mortgage balance, the deficiency), may be forgiven by the lender.
 - (1) Formerly, the amount of debt forgiven was considered income imputed to the seller and taxable as a capital gain by the IRS.
Parker Delaney, 186 F. 2d 455, 459 (1st Cir. 1950). However, federal legislation has temporarily suspended imputation of income upon the cancellation of debt.

6. Deed-in-lieu of Foreclosure: The homeowner's voluntary transfer of the home's title in exchange for the lender's agreement not to file a foreclosure action.

What is the ADA ?

- The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 was enacted to ensure that all qualified individuals with disabilities enjoy the same opportunities that are available to persons without disabilities. The ADA gives civil rights protections to individuals with disabilities similar to those provided to individuals on the basis of race, color, sex, national origin, age, and religion. It guarantees equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities in public accommodations, employment, transportation, state and local government services, and telecommunications. The ADA directly affects state courts as providers of public programs and services.
- Under the act, an individual with a "disability" is a person who has a physical or mental impairment that

| ADA Information | substantially limits a major life activity, has a record of such an impairment, or is regarded as having such an impairment. Examples of physical impairments include: speech and hearing impairments, visual impairments, epilepsy, heart disease, HIV infection/AIDS, cancer, diabetes, and mobility impairments. Examples of mental impairments include: learning disabilities and psychological disorders. | About Us Privacy Policy Contact Us ©2005 Fourteenth Judicial Circuit of Florida |
| Related Links Florida Supreme Court Florida State Courts 1st District Court of Appeal U.S. Federal Courts The Florida Bar Legal Services of North Florida | <ul style="list-style-type: none">■ The ADA is divided into five sections. Title I of the act prohibits unreasonable discrimination against qualified individuals based on a disability in all employment activities. Under Title II of the Act, no qualified individual with a disability shall be unreasonably discriminated against, or excluded from participation in or benefits of the services, programs, or activities of state and local government, including the judicial branch. Title III prohibits discrimination by public accommodations, that is, a private entity that owns, leases, or operates a place of public accommodations. Such a place is defined as, among other things, services by doctors, lawyers, accountants and other professionals. Title IV relates to telecommunications and Title V contains miscellaneous provisions. | |

What should I do if I am a qualified person with a disability who needs a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in the employment process within the State Courts System?

- If you are a person with a disability who needs a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in the employment application, recruitment, and selection process within the State Courts System, you should contact the Court Administrator's office at: (850) 747-5327, fax (850) 747-5717, in a timely manner. Please be prepared to explain your functional limitations and suggest a reasonable accommodation that you believe will enable you to effectively participate in the application, recruitment, and selection process. If you are a current employee of, or are hired by, the State Courts System and require a reasonable accommodation in order to perform the essential functions of the job in question, you should consult with your supervisor.

What should I do if I am a qualified person with a disability who needs assistance in order to participate in a program or service of the State Courts System?

- Some physical barriers make it difficult for persons with a disability to participate in court services or programs. In some courthouses, witness and jury boxes may be inaccessible to wheelchairs or public information counters may be too high for some persons. In addition to architecturally renovating facilities to make them readily accessible to persons with disabilities, there are other methods of providing program access including relocating a service to enable a person with a disability to participate or seating several jurors, including a juror using a wheelchair, in front of the juror box.

- Any device or aid that is designed to provide effective communication and participation for individuals with disabilities is an auxiliary aid or service. Examples of auxiliary aids or services include:
 - assistive listening devices,
 - sign language interpreters,
 - oral interpreters,
 - real-time transcription services,
 - providing materials in large print, Braille, diskette, or audio tapes, and
 - reader services.
- Services the State Courts System is not required to provide under the ADA include:
 - transportation to the courthouse,
 - legal counsel or advice,
 - personal devices such as a wheelchair or hearing aid,
 - personal services such as medical or attendant care, and
 - a modification of a policy or an auxiliary aid or service that would result in a fundamental alteration in the nature of the program or service, or would result in an undue burden.
- If you are a person with a disability who needs assistance in order to participate in a program or service of the State Courts System, you should contact the Court Administrator's office at: (850) 747-5327, fax (850) 747-5717 as much in advance of your court appearance or visit to the courthouse as possible. Please be prepared to explain your functional limitations and suggest an auxiliary aid or service that you believe will enable you to effectively participate in the court program or service.

What remedies are available to individuals with disabilities who believe their rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act have been violated?

- The State Courts System has established grievance procedures that allow for the resolution of complaints without resorting to federal complaint procedures. All persons have a right to pursue complaints of discrimination through the State Courts System's internal complaint procedure. For further information, please contact the Court Administrator's office at: (850) 747-5327, fax (850) 747-5717. The ADA recommends resolving disputes on a local level if possible. Individuals who unsuccessfully pursue local remedies are not prevented from later seeking relief through the United States Department of Justice or the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.
