Involved in Military Commissions

This Order supersedes all prior guidance, including the 19 May 2008 “Military Commissions Counsel Visitation of Detainees Practices Guide” and the 22 November 2011 “Revision of Privileged Communications Screening Procedures.”

Personnel at JTF-GTMO interact with Detainees in compliance with DoDD 2310.01E, DoDD 2311.01E, and DoDD 3115.09 and coordinate a variety of matters with regard to attorney visits, correspondence between attorneys and detainees, attorney-detainee meetings, attorney ingress into and egress from the detention facilities, and similar matters.

b. JTF-GTMO’s practices outlined below are comparable in certain respects to the rules and regulations governing other similarly secure federal facilities such as those operated by the Federal Bureau of Prisons, see, inter alia, 28 C.F.R. § 540.71(b), 28 CFR § 543.13(f), 28 CFR § 501.3 et seq., Bureau of Prisons Program Statement 5800.16 (Mail Management Manual), and the authority of the Bureau of Prisons to prevent Detainees suspected of terrorist acts from directing or facilitating acts of terrorism while in detention, and to mitigate the risk to the safety and security of detention personnel and Detainees, with appropriate modifications to account for requirements of law and procedure pertaining to military commissions.

JTF-GTMO-CDR

SUBJECT: Order Governing Written Communications Management for Detainees
Involved in Military Commissions

c. The procedures listed below are comparable in certain respects to those in the already-issued Protective Order and Procedures for Counsel Access to Detainees at the U.S. Naval Station in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, 577 F.Supp.2d 143 (D.D.C. 2008) (Hogan, J.) for the habeas proceedings brought by Detainees at Guantanamo, and the Amended Protective Order for Habeas Cases Involving Top Secret/Sensitive Compartmented Information and Procedures for Counsel Access to Detainees at the U.S. Naval Station in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, issued on January 9, 2009, with appropriate modifications to account for requirements of law and procedure pertaining to military commissions.

d. The procedures listed below are intended to provide military commissions Defense Counsel with instructions to facilitate correspondence with certain Detainees. They do not confer any substantive rights upon those Detainees or create any legal obligation for the Commander, JTF-GTMO or the Department of Defense. These procedures are subject to change, including modifications of these procedures for communications with a specific Detainee, if I determine different procedures are reasonably necessary to protect persons against the risk of death or serious bodily injury. See 28 C.F.R. § 501.3.

e. This Order does not govern the transmission of material to a Detainee via electronic media. A separate Order shall set out the procedures for the handling and processing of that material if and when electronic media is authorized for transmission to a Detainee. Until such a supplemental order is issued, all material must be provided in physical form and processed according to the procedures set out herein.
