

National Immigrant Justice Center

The American Civil Liberties Union, Human Rights Watch, Just Detention International, National Immigrant Justice Center, and Women's Refugee Commission invite you to a Congressional Briefing:

The Prison Rape Elimination Act and the Crisis of Sexual Abuse in Immigration Detention

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 7th at 3:00PM
RAYBURN HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING 2237

hosted by

Congressman Bobby Scott

Ranking Member
Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism and Homeland Security

Congressman Frank Wolf

Chairman
Commerce-Justice-Science Subcommittee

with

John Kaneb and Brenda Smith

Former Commissioners, National Prison Rape Elimination Commission (NPREC)

Esmeralda Soto

NPREC witness and survivor of assault in immigration detention

Michelle Brané

Director, Detention and Asylum Program, Women's Refugee Commission and moderated by

Joanne Lin, Legislative Counsel, American Civil Liberties Union

In proposed rules implementing the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA), the Department of Justice (DOJ) excluded coverage of immigration detention facilities. Speakers will discuss how PREA was intended to cover all immigrants in detention and how DOJ and the Department of Homeland Security must work to correct this dangerous oversight.

Seating is limited. Please RSVP by Monday, December 5th to Jane Zurnamer at
