

MR. PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS: WE'VE SEEN THIS MOVIE BEFORE

Supporters of the Cyber Intelligence Sharing and Protection Act (CISPA) are back with a new cybersecurity fear campaign. If they win, big business could hand over the personal data of millions of Americans to federal spy agencies.

But the real threat is CISPA itself – a vast, unjustified expansion of government access to Americans' private information. Smash CISPA before it smashes our rights and adopt rational policies to keep America's digital infrastructure safe.
