

You do NOT need a photo ID to vote this November 6!

Pennsylvania's voter ID law will NOT be enforced for the November 6, 2012, election. You will be asked for photo ID but will still be allowed to vote regularly without it.

Voters without ID should NOT be asked to vote on a provisional ballot. If this happens to you, or if you are told you can't vote at all without photo ID, call 866-OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683).

Voting for the first time at your polling place?

If you are voting for the first time at your polling place, you WILL need to show some form of ID, although it does NOT have to be a photo ID.

Accepted forms of photo ID:

- PA driver's license or other ID card issued by PennDOT
- ID issued by a PA or U.S. agency
- U.S. passport
- Military ID
- Student ID
- Employee ID

Accepted non-photo IDs (must list your name and current address):

- Voter registration card
- ID issued by a PA or U.S. agency
- Gun permit
