

Can persons with felony convictions VOTE IN WASHINGTON?

YES.

In Washington state, individuals convicted of felonies automatically regain their right to vote once they have completed their time in prison and no longer are under Department of Corrections (DOC) supervision.

For more information visit: [www.aclu-wa.org/
voting-rights-restoration-washington-state](http://www.aclu-wa.org/voting-rights-restoration-washington-state)

If you have questions about how the law affects your situation, please contact the ACLU. Call the ACLU Legal Intake and Referral line at 206-624-2180.

or visit: [www.aclu-wa.org/
about-getting-help](http://www.aclu-wa.org/about-getting-help)

