UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

JOHN DOE,

Petitioner,

v.

GEN. JAMES N. MATTIS,

Respondent.

No. 17-cv-2069 (TSC)

[PROPOSED]
PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Upon consideration of Petitioner's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction, and the entire record in this case;

It appears to the Court that: (1) Petitioner is likely to succeed on the merits of his challenge to Respondent's proposed transfer and release of Petitioner in Syria; (2) if Respondent is not immediately enjoined from releasing Petitioner from U.S. custody into Syria, Petitioner is likely to suffer irreparable injury; (3) any harm to Respondent that will result if such an order is issued is significantly outweighed by the harm to Petitioner that will result if an order is not issued; and (4) the public interest favors the entry of such an order. It is, therefore,

ORDERED that Petitioner's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction is hereby GRANTED, and that Respondent James N. Mattis (along with his successors in office, officers, agents, servants, employees, and anyone acting in concert with him) is hereby enjoined from releasing Petitioner from U.S. custody in Syria.

It is further ORDERED that Petitioner shall not be required to furnish security for costs.
