Document Description:

This is a one-page email discussing the redraft of a document regarding tape destruction. The document also contains predecisional, deliberative information provided by a CIA attorney to his client for the purpose of providing legal advice, this document also contains information relating to classified intelligence methods and the identities of personnel engaged in counter-terrorism operations. This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5), and in part on the bases of FOIA exemptions b(1), b(3), and b(6).

Exemption b(1) - This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources, intelligence methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is thus protected from disclosure by Exemption b(1).

Exemption b(3) - This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2008) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3). This document also contains information relating to the organization, functions, and names of persons employed by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3).

Exemption b(5) - This document contains information relating to predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of CIA personnel, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

Exemption b(6) - This document contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism operations, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The public interest in disclosure of the information does not outweigh the harm to the individuals whose privacy would be violated, and thus the information is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(6).

Document Description:

This is a five-page email, with an embedded draft cable and cable coordination information. The document discusses the disposition of the interrogation videotapes and the security risks of retaining the tapes. This document contains classified locations of CIA facilities, intelligence, operations, sources, and methods. It contains attorney-work product information in anticipation of litigation, and predecisional, deliberative information, exchanged between CIA officers and attorneys in connection with the provision of legal advice. It also contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counter-terrorism operations. This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5) and in part on the bases of FOIA exemptions b(1), b(3), and b(6).

Exemption b(1) - This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources, intelligence methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is thus protected from disclosure by Exemption b(1).

Exemption b(3) - This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2008) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3). This document also contains information relating to the organization, functions, and names of persons employed by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3).

Exemption b(5) – This document contains information created by an attorney or the attorney's agent in anticipation of litigation. The information has been kept in confidence by the attorney. It also contains communications between an attorney and client conducted for the purpose of allowing the attorney to provide legal advice to the client. The communications were made with the expectation that they would remain in confidence and have remained so. Additionally, this document contains information relating to intra-agency predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of CIA personnel. Therefore, this document is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

Exemption b(6) - This document contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism operations, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The public interest in disclosure of the information does not outweigh the harm to the individuals whose privacy would be violated, and thus the information is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(6).

This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5), and in part on the bases of FOIA exemptions b(1), b(3), and b(6).

Exemption b(1) - This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources, intelligence methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is thus protected from disclosure by Exemption b(1).

Exemption b(3) - This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2008) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3). This document also contains information relating to the organization, functions, and names of persons employed by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3).

Exemption b(5) - This document contains information relating to intra-agency predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of government attorneys created in anticipation of litigation, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

Exemption b(6) - This document contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism operations, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The public interest in disclosure of the information does not outweigh the harm to the individuals whose privacy would be violated, and thus the information is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(6).

Document Description:

This is a one-page email confirming receipt of a copy of a memorandum regarding the tapes. This document contains predecisional and attorney-client information, as well as information relating to classified intelligence operations and methods, as well as the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism activities. This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5) and in part on the bases of FOIA exemptions b(1), b(3), and b(6).

Exemption b(1) - This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources, intelligence methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is thus protected from disclosure by Exemption b(1).

Exemption b(3) - This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2008) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3). This document also contains information relating to the organization, functions, and names of persons employed by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3).

Exemption b(5) - This document contains information relating to predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of a CIA attorney, as well as communications between an attorney and client, made and kept in confidence, for the purpose of the attorney providing the client legal advice, and is therefore protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

Exemption b(6) - This document contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism operations, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The public interest in disclosure of the information does not outweigh the harm to the individuals whose privacy would be violated, and thus the information is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(6).

Document Description:

This is a one-page email inquiring as to what would make the tapes an official record. This document contains predecisional information and communication between CIA attorneys, as well as information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counter-terrorism activities. This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5), and in part on the bases of FOIA exemptions b(3) and b(6).

Exemption b(3) - This document also contains information relating to the organization, functions, and names of persons employed by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3).

Exemption b(5) - This document contains information relating to predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of government attorneys, as well as CIA attorney work product conveyed for the purposes of soliciting legal advice. The information is therefore protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

Exemption b(6) - This document contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism operations, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The public interest in disclosure of the information does not outweigh the harm to the individuals whose privacy would be violated, and thus the information is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(6).
