Document Description:

This is a six-page email, with an embedded memo and Memo for the Record, regarding the review of interrogation tapes. This document contains predecisional information created by a CIA attorney in anticipation of litigation and communicated as part of the CIA's deliberative process. It also contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counter-terrorism activities and information relating to classified intelligence operations and methods. This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5) and in part on the basis of FOIA exemptions b(1), b(3) and b(6).

Exemption b(1) - This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources, intelligence methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is thus protected from disclosure by Exemption b(1).

Exemption b(3) - This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(j)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2008) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3). This document also contains information relating to the organization, functions, and names of persons employed by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3).

Exemption b(5) - This document contains information relating to intra-agency predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of government attorneys created in anticipation of litigation, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

Exemption b(6) - This document contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism operations, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The public interest in disclosure of the information does not outweigh the harm to the individuals whose privacy would be violated, and thus the information is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(6).

Document Description:

This is a seven-page email, with an attached memo regarding the disposition of the videotapes. This document contains information that relates to the Agency's organizational structure, as well as classified intelligence operations and methods. It also contains predecisional and deliberative information that was created in anticipation of litigation and information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counter-terrorism activities. This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5), and in part on the basis of FOIA exemption b(1), b(3), and b(6). This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5) and in part on the bases of FOIA exemptions b(1), b(3), and b(6).

Exemption b(1) - This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources, intelligence methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is thus protected from disclosure by Exemption b(1).

Exemption b(3) - This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2008) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3). This document also contains information relating to the organization, functions, and names of persons employed by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3).

Exemption b(5) - This document contains information relating to predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of government attorneys created in anticipation of litigation, and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

Exemption b(6) - This document contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism operations, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The public interest in disclosure of the information does not outweigh the harm to the individuals whose privacy would be violated, and thus the information is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(6).

Document Description:

This is a two-page email, with an embedded cable, discussing retention and disposal of the videotapes. The document contains information that relates to locations of CIA facilities, as well as intelligence operations and methods. This document contains predecisional information communicated between CIA attorneys for the purposes of obtaining legal advice, as well as attorney-client information. The document also contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counter-terrorism activities. This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5) and in part on the bases of FOIA exemptions b(1), b(3), and b(6).

Exemption b(1) - This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources, intelligence methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is thus protected from disclosure by Exemption b(1).

Exemption b(3) - This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2008) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3). This document also contains information relating to the organization, functions, and names of persons employed by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3).

Exemption b(5) – This document contains information relating to predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of CIA attorneys, as well as CIA attorney work product conveyed for the purposes of soliciting legal advice. The information is therefore protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

Exemption b(6) - This document contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism operations, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Document Description:

This is a three-page email, with an embedded cable, discussing the disposition of the videotapes. The document contains information that relates to locations of CIA facilities, as well as intelligence sources and methods. This document contains predecisional information communicated between CIA attorneys for the purposes of obtaining legal advice, as well as attorney-client communication. The document also contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counter-terrorism activities. This document is withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemption b(5) and in part on the bases of FOIA exemptions b(1), b(3), and b(6).

Exemption b(1) - This document contains information relating to intelligence activities (including special activities), intelligence sources, intelligence methods, and foreign relations or foreign activities of the United States, including confidential sources, that is properly classified pursuant to section 1.4(c) and 1.4(d) of Executive Order 12958, as amended, and is thus protected from disclosure by Exemption b(1).

Exemption b(3) - This document contains information relating to intelligence sources and intelligence methods that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403-1(i)(1) (West Supp. 2008) and section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3). This document also contains information relating to the organization, functions, and names of persons employed by the CIA that is specifically exempted from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Act of 1949, as amended, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403g (West Supp. 2008), and thus is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(3).

Exemption b(5) - This document contains information relating to predecisional deliberations, including preliminary evaluations, opinions, and recommendations of CIA personnel, as well as communications between an attorney and client, made and kept in confidence, for the purpose of the attorney providing the client legal advice, and is therefore protected from disclosure by Exemption b(5).

Exemption b(6) - This document contains information relating to the identities of personnel engaged in counterterrorism operations, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The public interest in disclosure of the information does not outweigh the harm to the individuals whose privacy would be violated, and thus the information is protected from disclosure by Exemption b(6).
