

STATE OF VERMONT
SUPERIOR COURT
CIVIL DIVISION

Katherine Baker and Ming-Lien Linsley,

Plaintiffs

v.

Caledonia Unit
Docket No. 183-7-11 CACV

Wildflower Inn a/k/a DOR Associates LLP,

Defendant

Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice

Pursuant to Vt. R. Civ. P. 79.1(e), which permits this Court to admit pro hac vice “[a]ny member in good standing of the bar of any other state or of the District of Columbia who has filed a pro hac vice licensing statement form with the Court Administrator and who has paid the required fee,” the plaintiffs move to admit the following counsel:

Name	Address	Licensing Jurisdiction(s)
Joshua Block, ACLU	125 Broad Street, Floor 18 New York, New York 10004 (212) 549-2600 / jblock@aclu.org	New York (2006)
Leslie Cooper, ACLU	125 Broad Street, Floor 18 New York, New York 10004 (212) 549-2600 / lcooper@aclu.org	New York (1996) New Jersey (inactive) (1995)

Both of the above have submitted licensing applications and paid the pro hac fee in accordance with Administrative Order No. 41 (copies of their pro hac license cards are attached to this motion). Dan Barrett of the ACLU of Vermont will serve as lead counsel.

_____/s/_____
Dan Barrett
ACLU of Vermont
137 Elm Street
Montpelier, VT 05602
(802) 223-6304
e-filings@acluvt.org

Counsel for Katherine Baker and Ming-Lien Linsley
July 29, 2011

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on July 29, 2011, I served the plaintiffs' motion for admission pro hac vice by means of postage-prepaid first class mail upon:

DOR Associates, LLP
c/o James O'Reilly, registered agent
2059 Darling Hill Road
Lyndonville, VT 05851

Defendant

_____/s/_____
Dan Barrett
ACLU Foundation of Vermont
137 Elm Street
Montpelier, VT 05602
(802) 223-6304
e-filings@acluvt.org

Counsel for Katherine Baker and Ming-Lien Linsley
July 29, 2011